Introduction to CLIL

PURPOSES AND AIMS

The main purpose of this course is to provide teachers with an introduction to content and language integrated learning (CLIL). The focus of the course is on language development and exploring how the 4 Cs (critical thinking, communication, collaboration and creativity) play an important part of teaching in English.

WHO IS THIS COURSE FOR?

KSELive!CLIL is a course designed for teachers of other subjects who need to use English in the classroom.

Teachers enrolled on the KSELive!CLIL course are asked to provide their English language level upon enrollment. Language level should be expressed according to the grading used by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR): A1, A2, B1, B2 etc. If you are unsure which level you are, you can check here: <https://www.coe.int/en/web/portfolio/self-assessment-grid>

COURSE CONTENTS

This course runs in two modes: intensive and extensive. Please check for availability on our Courses for Teachers page.

Each session is divided into three parts:

Pre-class work

This will normally take the form of a short reading, listening or writing exercise.

5-10 minutes

Live lesson with a KSE teacher

You will join colleagues from other schools for a lesson with a KSE teacher. Each lesson will be structured around a central topic with plenty of opportunities for academic discussion.

50 minutes

Consolidation work

At the end of each lesson, the teacher will set short tasks and suggested reading

5-10 minutes

KSE course certificate awarded at end of course

IN THE CLASSROOM

We like to make our online classrooms friendly, cooperative spaces in which all learners have opportunities to share ideas and ask questions.

We try to create international classrooms on many of our courses – a great way to share ideas with people from other countries. Classes are conducted in English. All our trainers are qualified native English speakers

- Join with the biggest screen you can (ideally a PC, laptop or large tablet)
- Ensure your microphone and speakers are working
- Keep your camera on throughout the lesson
- We operate a waiting room. If we do not recognise your name on the screen you will not be allowed to enter the room, so please make sure you use the name you registered with
- Please find a quiet area to work in, away from loud noises or other people talking (this can distract you and the other members of the class)
- KSELive! reserves the right to mute or block learners who violate our Terms of Service
