Located in the heart of Dallas' Uptown district, Hotel Crescent Court fuses luxury and sophistication with Texan charm and scale. The hotel offers 186 recently renovated luxury guestrooms and 40 suites, 17,000 square feet of versatile meeting and event space, a 22,000 square foot spa and fitness center, our private Crescent Club and on-site options including Beau Nash cocktail lounge, an on-site Starbucks and world renowned Japanese restaurant Nobu.

Grand from its very inception, the hotel eclipsed the Empire State Building in size and broke a world record in the amount of limestone used in construction. Ten different types of marble were imported from Italy and Spain for flooring and counters, alongside slate from Wales for roofing. It is also believed to possess the world's largest assemblage of cast aluminum, in the ornate decor and trellises that adorn the hotel's exterior.

For more than 30 years, Hotel Crescent Court has been recognized by travel magazines and organizations as one of the finest luxury hotels in the country. Its central location, elegant decor and luxurious spa have made the hotel a romantic destination for travelers, a delightful escape for locals and a natural choice for the rich and famous.

The hotel completed a $33 million renovation in 2018 to its guestrooms, spa, fitness center and public spaces bringing it back to its iconic status.
