Santa Caterina — Amalfi, Italy

There is nothing that does not dazzle at the Santa Caterina, hewn from a cliff-side off the staggeringly stunning Amalfi Coast. Terraces cleaved from natural rock formations and sprinkled with citrus groves and assorted gardens appear with astonishing regularity around every turn, ready to lend themselves to a quiet moment. The interiors are vaguely reminiscent of one of the island's little Catholic churches—white walls, white linens, vaulted ceilings, gold-hued curtains, little baroque wooden chairs, and tiled floors decked out in primary colors—pretty angelic, really, and not a bad vibe to gravitate toward when you're seeking a peaceful stay away (you could also try the spa!). Some rooms feature ceramic accents and charming family heirlooms, and all bathrooms benefit from Bvlgari toiletries.

Hotel Santa Caterina is close to the center of Amalfi overlooking the coastline, perfectly located for taking day trips to Positano, Ravello, Sorrento, Capri, Pompeii and Herculaneum, and Naples.

The hotel offers a free shuttle (navy coloured Mercedes Viano with hotel logo's on each side) for guests to and from the center of Amalfi (near the roundabout, at the bus departure point to Ravello), departing every 30 minutes from 8 a.m. till midnight. The center of Amalfi is also just a 15 minute walk away.

A beautiful stay- highly recommend!

ROOMS AND SUITES OF YOUR DREAMS

Classic Italian interiors, quintessentially Mediterranean architecture and the style of the villas of Amalfi: all of Hotel Santa Caterina's rooms are spacious and filled with light, with floors in hand painted majolica, marble bathrooms, and balconies with view over the sea of Amalfi or the garden.

SPOILT FOR CHOICE

Hotel Santa Caterina has two restaurants both with panoramic sea view : the Michelin-starred Glicine, located in the main building and Al Mare, overlooking the swimming pool and the sea. The careful selection of primary ingredients and the natural talent of the hotel's chefs result in the most delicious of dishes. The classic recipes of the Amalfi Coast and their brilliant modern interpretation have earned Hotel Santa Caterina its outstanding reputation on the international gastronomic scene.
