

ABOUT THE PRESIDENT - KRISNA BENNETT

Krisna joined OMG in 1997, which her mother founded in 1992, and began her career as an equal employment opportunity (EEO) contract compliance consultant in government contracting work. She has been instrumental in developing opportunities for diverse businesses; EEO programs; State and Federal labor compliance programs; community outreach planning and program enforcement; and stakeholder risk analyses for both public and private sector organizations.

Krisna became the sole owner of OMG in 2018 and has established herself as an industry leader in ensuring successful labor and prevailing wage projects in the commercial and residential multi family housing construction government funded industry. Ms. Bennett is an expert in State and Federal labor compliance, diverse business and workforce project development. Krisna has helped a multitude of government agencies and private companies develop and implement successful labor compliance, disadvantaged local hire and business programs throughout Los Angeles and surrounding communities. Recent project work includes providing labor compliance and business diversity contract compliance services as part of the Metropolis Hotel Indigo and Residences, the Park and Market apartments in San Diego, the Metro Southwestern Yard, the Airport Metro Connector, El Verano Apartments, Silva Crossing, The Nook, 127th Street Apartments, Courson Arts Colony east and west, Springhaven Willowbrook and several others.

As the owner of Opportunity Marketing Group, Inc. Krisna has forged professional relationships that are founded in trust, mutual respect, mindfulness, diversity and open communication.

