Akshaya Tritiya Celebration

May 10th, 2024 (Friday) – 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM

Akshaya Tritiya or Akha teej is a highly auspicious day which falls on the third day after Amavasi (no moon) in the Hindu month of Vaishakh. According to Hindu Mythology, Akshaya Tritiya was the day when Veda Vyasa started dictating the epic Mahabharata to Ganesh. It is also traditionally celebrated as the birthday of Hindu sage Parashuram, the sixth Avatar (incarnation) of the god Vishnu. On this day the Treta Yuga began and river Ganges, the most holy and sacred river on India, descended to the earth from heaven. The word "Akshaya" means the never diminishing in the Sanskrit and the day is believed to bring good luck and success. It is believed that if you do a charity on this day you will be blessed and will receive blessings many fold.
