

Shri Ram Mandir

6521 Chase Oaks Blvd, TX 75023

www.shrirammandir.org

info@shrirammandir.org

972-422-1600

KARWA CHAATH

Oct 9th, 2025 (Thursday)

Karwa Chauth is a festival that provides an opportunity for all married women to get close to their in-laws. All married women observe fast that ensures the well-being, prosperity, and longevity of their husbands. This Hindu festival has a cultural and social significance, and all Indians celebrate this festival with great enthusiasm. Karwa Chauth is an occasion that encourages people to gather and socialize with friends and family, exchange gifts and share home-cooked meals. The gifts exchanged on this occasion reflect joy, splendor, brightness, and happiness of a married life.

Karwa Chauth Pooja will be held in four batches:

3:45pm-4:30pm

5:00pm-5:45pm

6:00pm-6:45pm

7:00pm-7:45pm

Group Yajmaan (Sponsorship): $25/-

Please bring your pooja thali and join any one of the above three groups. Each one-hour group pooja will include Karwa Chauth pooja and Katha by Panditji, singing of the Karwa Chauth song, and exchange of Pooja thalis seven times among the women. Dholak music will accompany the singing and thali exchanges.

Join the Karwa Chauth festivities at Shri Ram Mandir!

Mehndi Booth & Karwa Chauth Mela

Oct 8th: 4:30 PM-8:30PM

For more information, please contact mandir at

972-422-1600 or visit www.shrirammandir.org

