A vibrant digital illustration of a Japanese street at night. The scene is viewed from a low angle looking down a wet, cobblestone street that reflects the warm lights of the street lamps and the colorful sky. On either side of the street are traditional Japanese buildings with dark tiled roofs and glowing lanterns. Cherry blossom trees with pink and white blossoms line the street, with petals falling through the air. In the background, the snow-capped peak of Mount Fuji rises majestically against a dramatic sky of orange, yellow, and deep blue. A few figures are visible in the distance, including a person walking a small black dog. The overall atmosphere is serene yet lively, capturing the beauty of a Japanese evening.
