

Responsibilities of the Board

The mission of Black Investment Group LLC is to empower and support black communities in building wealth through strategic investments.

As the highest leadership body of the organization and to satisfy its fiduciary duties, the board is responsible for:

- determining its mission and understanding its collective purpose.
- selecting, supporting, and evaluating the performance of the chief executive.
- strategic and organizational planning.
- ensuring fiduciary solid oversight and financial management.
- fundraising and resource development.
- approving and monitoring the organization's programs and services.
- enhancing the organization's public image.
- assessing its performance as the governing body of the organization.
- ensuring legal and ethical integrity.

Responsibilities of Individual Board Members

Each board member must:

- know the organization's mission, policies, programs, and needs, and understand its collective purpose.
- faithfully read and understand the organization's financial statements and board materials before meetings.
- serve as active advocates and ambassadors for the organization.
- fully identify and secure the financial resources and partnerships necessary for the organization to advance its mission.
- leverage connections, networks, and resources to develop collective action to achieve the organization's mission.
- give a meaningful personal financial donation.
- help identify personal relationships that can benefit the organization's fundraising and reputation and influence public policy.
- prepare for, attend, and conscientiously participate in board meetings.
- participate fully in one or more committees or task forces.
- engage in learning opportunities to better understand the community we serve.
- respect the experiences of all who bring their voices and lived experiences into the boardroom and the organization.