

The Attitude of Lawlessness

24 June 2022

Let's think about this one...Regardless of if you are a Republican or Democrat, Conservative or Liberal, Traditional or Progressive, etc...NOBODY likes their stuff being destroyed or their community being ravaged...NOBODY.

The root cause of lawlessness and anarchy is attitude. People who destroy things, riot, loot, commit arson, and similar activities have an attitude of superiority over all those who do not participate in such things.

The proof is this - are they burning down their own homes in protest? Are they burning down or looting their own businesses - OR...Is it ALWAYS someone else's property and belongings? You will hear it is because they are being "oppressed" or treated "unfairly" - nothing could be further from the truth.

Their goal is collapse of the system and in their warped brain, they think destroying the relative wealth of others will somehow gain them an advantage in a "post-law and order world." Hence, their attitude of superiority results in them trying to bring down others to elevate themselves to that which they are not.

When these clowns start burning their own homes, smashing their own cars, bringing their own small business to ruin with looting, going on multi-month hunger strikes, organizing their agenda, etc...then (and ONLY then) will they be anything other than a lawless mob and a bunch of thugs (OBTW - thugs is an attitude and behavioral term that has zero to do with race).

You can read my post on social injustices here:
