Honoring The Ancestors

The Clark Virtual Museum's Vibrant New Look For Spring!

The Clark Virtual Museum is popping into spring with color! As the traditional signs of Spring are all around us, we've decided to incorporate bold, beautiful spring colors into our website exhibits and contents! We've splashed a bit of orange, blue, pink, purple, green, red and yellow into our backdrops! These vivid colors are a reminder that The Clark Virtual Museum is in the spring of its development! We've got much more to come!

We've Made It Even Easier To Navigate Our Museum

The Clark Virtual Museum has made it even easier to navigate our website. We've grouped our exhibits together in a more organized and meaningful way! If you're interested in viewing the exhibit on Black leaders such as the Honorable Marcus Garvey or The Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad, you'll find them in our exhibits featuring Black Leaders. If you're interested in viewing the exhibit on notable Black peoples such as the great film producer Oscar Micheaux, the great singer / actor Paul Robeson, or great baseball player Willie Mays, you can go to our section featuring notable Black people! If you're interested in learning more about lesser known Black figures such as the bridgebuilder Horace King or E.E. Ward, founder of the oldest Black Business in America, you can access it quickly!

From The Great Migration of the 1920's, 30's & 40's, to the rise of Pullman Porters on the railroads; and from The Black Panther Party and their Martyrs in the Struggle, it's all just a click away!

Access Exhibits Right From The Homepage!

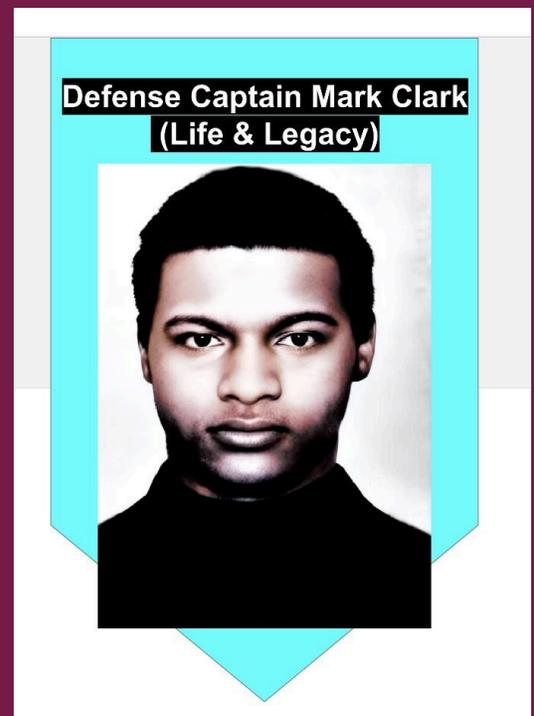

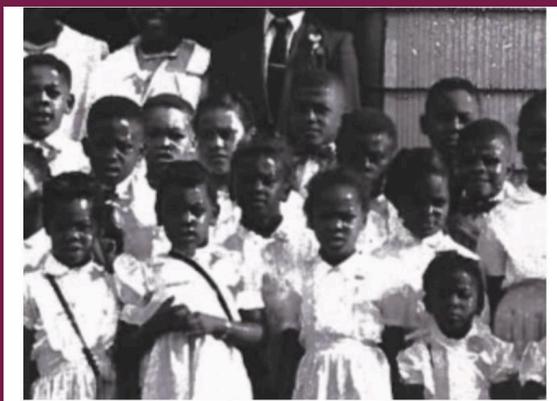

Patrons can access their desired exhibits and contents right from our home page by just pressing on a photo! It's that simple! No longer is it necessary to go to the Gallery Exhibits Lobby! However, that's still an option for those who prefer it!

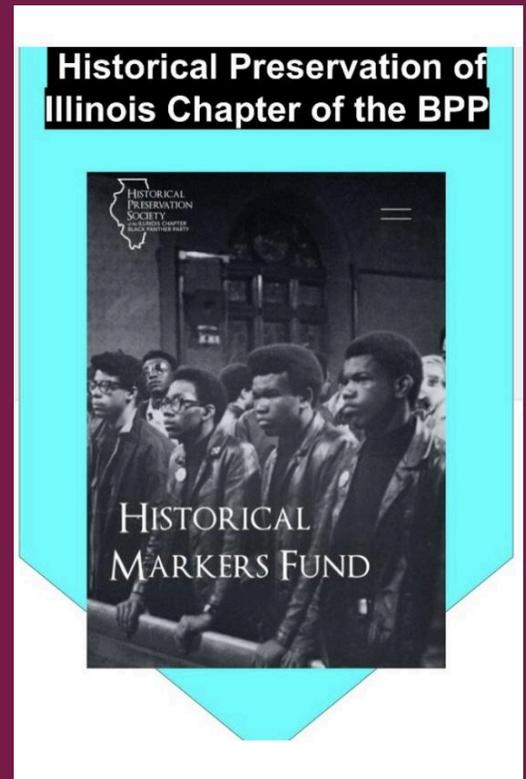

We've added a new video to our homepage that explains just how easy it is to navigate through the museum! Our video also shares the new updates we've made to our exhibits!

Exhibit “The Life and Legacy of Mark Clark” Has Been Updated

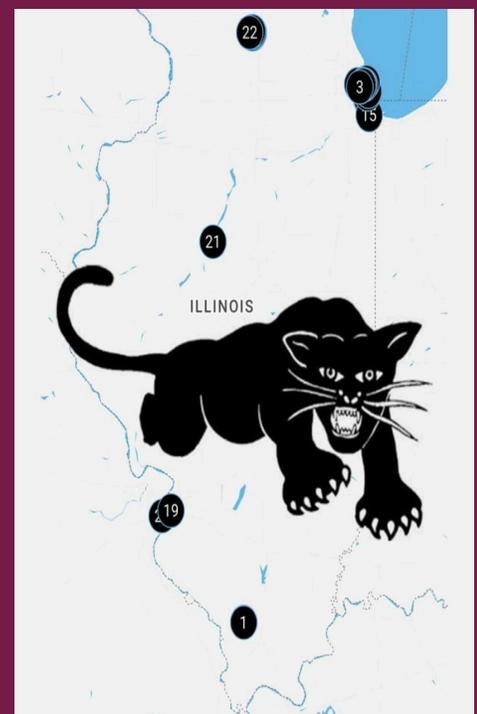

We’ve updated the exhibit “The Life and Legacy of Mark Clark” and added more photos and information. We provide our patrons with more insight into Mark Clark’s early life growing up in Peoria, Illinois and his family dynamics. We also provide more information about his struggle in the Black Panther Party and his establishment of a Black Panther Party Free Breakfast program at Ward Chapel A.M.E. Church in Peoria, Illinois.

An Update On The Historical Preservation and Landmarking Of The ILBPP!

The work of the Historical Preservation Society of the ILBPP continues. So far nine historical Markers have been confirmed and will be placed at various sites. To learn more about the Historical Preservation and Landmarking of the ILBPP visit their website: ilbpp.org
