

Laurie Vega

JAZZ | R&B

I am a classically trained vocalist who hails from the sizzling streets of Spanish Harlem in New York City. Raised in a culturally and musically rich Puerto Rican household, at any given moment, the sounds of Ella Fitzgerald, Tito Puente, Louis Armstrong, Celia Cruz or Frank Sinatra could be heard swooning from my family's 2nd floor tenement apartment. Music was in my blood from day one...

"The Song Is You" (Don't Tell Mama, NYC)

"She enters with the energy and joi de vivre of a teenager! A teenager in sparkles and diamonds and boa and with one hell of a singing voice! Her voice with its hints of Judy Garland and Ethel Merman can belt, hold notes til the sun goes down, and sell a song full of emotion.

She is Laurie Vega...

Her rocket is loaded and ready for take-off."

"You'll find yourself drawn to the power of her voice, only to be transported to the sweet space of soulful jazz."

"She brings the sound, the vibe and the energy! You'll stomp your feet and clap your hands ~ and most of all, enjoy the music."

"Cheek to Cheek" (Brush Culture, Teaneck, NJ)
