Agenda

1. Escrow account, next steps, timeframe etc.
2. Capital Campaign Launch, communication, preparation, marketing materials and re-energizing conversations to host people in our homes etc.

Minutes

1. Peter A. shared his updates on the escrow account. He shared that himself and Bill talked with Fidelity National Title Agency and the outcome was positive. It seems like that Fidelity National Title Agency is open to work with us. Peter A. also shared that the St. Demetrios Parish Council unanimously agreed to proceed with the escrow account. Now this decision needs to be approved by the General Assembly on Sunday, April 21st before the Capital Campaign Foundation proceeds with the escrow account. Peter A. shared that he will contact Jim Eckstaed, our contact person from the Metropolis when we have the approval from the General Assembly to ask for advice for the next steps. After the General Assembly approval he will also contact the legal firm Farhang & Medcoff for advice.
2. Tina E. shared that it is hard to schedule the Capital Campaign Launch without the architectural plans and renderings and the budget. The Capital Campaign Foundation will work together with the Building Committee and we will start scheduling the Launch after having this information. Peter A. shared that we can
