88. K.
I, JOHN F. KENNEDY, married, and residing in the City of Boston, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and mindful of the uncertainty of life, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament.

FIRST

I hereby revoke any and all other Wills, Testaments, and Codicils heretofore made by me.

SECOND

I direct that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as may be convenient.

THIRD

I give and bequeath unto my wife, JACQUELINE B. KENNEDY, if she survives me, the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars, together with all of my personal effects, furniture, furnishings, silverware, dishes, china, glassware and linens, which I may own at the time of my death.

FOURTH

During my life, I have made substantial contributions to divers charities, causes and institutions of all faiths, both individually and through The Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation, which was established in honor of my late beloved brother. I am certain that the contributions which I and other members of my family have made to the Foundation will be applied after my death without bias or discrimination to the fulfillment of the Foundation's eleemosynary purposes.

FIFTH

I hereby direct my Executors to divide into two equal shares all of the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real, personal, and of any nature whatsoever and wheresoever situate, of which I shall die seized and possessed, and to which I shall be entitled at the time of my death, including without limitation any gifts and bequests heretofore made by me which may fail or lapse, and any property over which I may have the right of testamentary disposition, and I hereby give, devise, bequeath and dispose of the said two equal shares as follows:

[A] As to One of Such Equal Shares - (Hereinafter Called "The First Equal Share")

1. If my wife, JACQUELINE B. KENNEDY, survives me, then I give, devise and bequeath the First Equal Share unto my Executors and Trustees hereinafter named, In Trust, nevertheless, for the benefit of my said wife, to invest, reinvest and keep the same invested, and to collect and receive the rent, income and profits therefrom, and after deducting all proper reserves and expenses, to pay to my said wife, in each calendar year, all of the net income thereof; such payments to be made in semi-annual or sooner installments, as my Trustees in their sole discretion may determine.

2. Upon the death of my said wife, the Trustees shall pay over the principal of the trust as it shall then exist, to such person or persons, including her own estate, and in such proportions as my said wife designates or appoints in and by her Last Will and Testament, under and by specific reference to this paragraph; and in default of such designation or appointment, the Trustees shall divide the same into as many equal parts as there shall be living at the death of my wife, children of mine and issue (taken collectively) of any predeceased child of mine, and shall pay one such equal part unto each such child, and one such equal part, in equal shares, per stirpes, unto such issue; and in default of all thereof, the same shall be paid to those persons to whom and in those proportions in which the same would have been distributed had I died immediately after the death of my wife, seized and possessed of said principal in my own right, intestate, domiciled in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and not survived by my father or mother.

3. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Will contained, during the life of my said wife, the Trustees in their sole discretion may from time to time pay to my said wife out of the principal of the trust set up for her benefit, such sum or sums as the Trustees in their sole discretion may deem necessary to insure her health, welfare, or comfort, or to enable her to maintain the standard of living to which she is accustomed; provided, however, that such payments out of principal shall not aggregate in any one calendar year more than ten percent (10%) of the principal of the trust as it existed on the first day of said calendar year and computed at market or appraisal value as of the first day of said calendar year; and provided, further, that if said principal as so computed shall be less than One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars on the first day of said calendar year, the Trustees may in their sole discretion and without regard to said limitation of ten percent (10%), pay to my said wife all of said principal, even though such payment may terminate the trust.

The Trustees may exercise the discretion in this Paragraph "[A]-3" provided without regard to any other income or resources which my said wife may have from time to time, and without in anywise being accountable for the exercise of such discretion, but the Trustees may not be compelled to exercise such discretion.

4. In setting up the trust for the benefit of my said wife as in this Paragraph "[A]" provided, I direct that such First Equal Share shall be constituted of assets of my estate as are classified as "deductible" under the provisions of the United States Internal Revenue Code (Section 812(e), and the Regulations thereto (as the same or similar statutes and regulations may provide at the date of my death), before resort is had to "non-deductible" assets for such purpose.

5. If my said wife, JACQUELINE B. KENNEDY, does not survive me, then I direct that the First Equal Share shall be added to the Second Equal Share bequeathed and devised in Paragraph "[B]" of this Article "FIFTH", and shall be disposed of as part thereof.

[B] As to the Remaining Equal Share - (Hereinafter Called "The Second Equal Share")

I give, devise and bequeath the Second Equal Share, or if my said wife, JACQUELINE B. KENNEDY, shall not survive me, then also the First Equal Share, unto my Executors and Trustees hereinafter named, In Trust, nevertheless, to divide said Equal Share(s) into as many sub-shares as I shall leave me surviving children and issue (taken collectively) of any of my children who shall have predeceased me, and to hold and dispose of such equal sub-shares as follows:

1. To pay over one such equal sub-share, in equal parts, unto the issue living at the time of my death of any of my children who shall have predeceased me, such issue to take per stirpes and not per capita.

2(a). To set aside one such equal sub-share for the benefit of each of my children, and to invest, reinvest, and keep the same invested, and to collect and receive the rents, income and profits therefrom, and after deducting all proper reserves and expenses, to pay the net income thereof in each year to the child for whom such equal sub-share is so held in trust, in annual or sooner installments, as my Trustees in their sole discretion may determine, as long as such child shall live.

806. (b). Upon the death of such child, the trust for his or her benefit shall come to an end, and the principal of the trust as it shall then exist shall be paid unto the issue of such child living at his or her death, in equal shares, per stirpes and not per capita; and in default of such issue, the same shall be paid in equal shares unto my other children living at the termination of the trust and unto the issue then living of any of my children who shall have died prior to the termination of the trust, such issue to participate equally per capita in one equal share; and in default of all of the foregoing, such principal shall be paid unto those persons to whom and in those proportions in which the same would have been distributed had I died immediately upon the termination of the trust seized and possessed of said principal in my own right, intestate, domiciled in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and not survived by my father or mother.

(c). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Will contained, and in addition to all other powers and authorities vested in the Trustees, I hereby empower the Trustees in their sole discretion, out of the principal of a trust set up herein for the benefit of a child of mine, to expend from time to time, for the benefit, health, welfare, or comfort of such child, or to enable him or her to maintain the standard of living to which such child may be accustomed, such sums as the Trustees in their sole discretion may determine; provided, however, that such expenditures out of principal shall not aggregate in any one calendar year more than twenty percent (20%) of the principal of said trust as it existed on the first day of said calendar year, and computed at market or appraisal value as of the first day of said calendar year; and provided, further, that if said principal as so computed shall be less than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars on the first day of said calendar year, the Trustees may in their sole discretion and without regard to said limitation of twenty percent (20%), expend all of said principal, even though such expenditure may terminate the trust.

The Trustees may exercise their discretion as in this Paragraph "[B]-2(c)" provided, without regard to any other income or resources which said child may have from time to time, and without in anywise being accountable for the exercise of such discretion, but the Trustees may not be compelled to exercise such discretion.

(d). In the event that a child of mine for whom a trust has been set up herein shall be a minor, then during the minority of such child, the Trustees shall from time to time apply so much of the net income of the trust as the Trustees in their sole discretion may determine, to the maintenance, support, education and welfare of such child, accumulating the balance of the net income until such child attains his or her majority, at which time all of the accumulated income shall be paid unto such child. Upon the death of such child before attaining his or her majority, the accumulated income shall be paid unto the persons and in the same proportions, manner and events provided in Paragraph "[E]-2(b)" of this Article "FIFTH" for the payment of principal upon the termination of the trust.

(e). In making any expenditure out of principal as provided in Paragraph "[E]-2(c)" of this Article "FIFTH", and in applying the net income during the minority of a child, as provided in Paragraph "[B]-2(d)" of this Article "FIFTH", the Trustees may in their sole discretion make such expenditure or application direct or in the form of a payment to the parent, or to the guardian appointed under any jurisdiction either of the person or property of said child, or to an adult person with whom the child for whose benefit the trust is set up resides; or ~~If~~ such child is over the age of eighteen (18) years, then to such child; and the receipt of such parent, guardian, adult person, or child, as the case may be, shall discharge the Trustees and they shall not be responsible for the application of the principal or income by such parent, guardian, adult person, or child.

8. D. K.
3. In the event that my wife, JACQUELINE B. KENNEDY, survives me, but I am not survived by any children or by any issue of a deceased child, then I give, devise and bequeath the Second Equal Share unto my said wife, to have and to hold unto herself absolutely and forever.

[C] In the event that neither my said wife, JACQUELINE B. KENNEDY, nor any of my children, nor any issue of my children survive me, then I give, devise and bequeath the First and Second Equal Shares to those persons to whom, and in those proportions in which the same would have been distributed had I died intestate, a widower, seized and possessed of such shares in my own right, domiciled in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and not survived by my father or mother.

[D] In the event that any part of my estate or of the principal of the trusts provided for in this Will shall become or be payable to a person under the age of twenty-one (21) years, said part shall vest absolutely in such person, notwithstanding minority.

During the minority of such person, and unless otherwise prevented by law, such part shall, in the sole discretion of the Executors or Trustees, remain in the custody of the Executors or Trustees, as Donees under a power of trust, until such minor attains the age of twenty-one (21) years. The Donees shall apply so much of the income or principal as the Donees, in their sole discretion, may deem necessary or advisable for the benefit of said minor, irrespective of any other source of support or maintenance or any other property which said minor has or may from time to time have.

The Donees are empowered to apply principal and income directly to the use of such minor, or to make any payment of principal or income to such minor, or to the parent, or to the guardian appointed under any jurisdiction of the person or property of such minor, or to an adult person with whom such minor resides. The receipt of such minor, parent, guardian, or person (as the case may be) shall discharge the Donees and they shall not be responsible for the application of the principal and income by such parent, guardian, person or beneficiary.

8. A.K.

The Donees shall have all the investment and administrative powers conferred upon the Trustees hereunder. The Donees shall be entitled to receive as compensation the same commissions in respect of income and principal as are allowed to the Trustees, and they may deduct their commissions without judicial authorization.

SIXTH

I hereby authorize and empower my Executors and Trustees, as the case may be:

7. A fiduciary appointed by the Court is required, as a condition of the bond, to file an account at least once per year. The account should contain the amount of property from the inventory and property received after the inventory was filed, income received, debts paid, distributions made, fees paid to the fiduciary or others, and the money or property remaining in the estate. A fiduciary may ask you to assent to his/her account. An assent signed by you means that you agree with all items reported by the fiduciary in the account. Before you assent you should read the account carefully, have all your questions answered and be satisfied that the account is accurate. If a fiduciary fails to file an account when it is due, an interested person may petition the Court to order the fiduciary to file an account. You may have to contact the Court to find out if an account has been filed. If a fiduciary files an account and asks the Court to approve it, a notice of the request is required to be sent to persons who have a legal interest in the estate. After notice has been received that the fiduciary intends to ask the Court to approve the account, it is the responsibility of the interested parties to examine the account and to object to any items which they regard as inappropriate. If you wish to object to the allowance of the account, you must file a written appearance with the Court on or before the date in the notice (the return day). Specific objections must be filed within thirty (30) days of the return date. If no objections are made, the Court may allow the account without further notice or hearing.

to be appointed trustees of the ~~estate~~ trust under Article FIFTH [B] of the will of John F. Kennedy for the benefit of Caroline B. Kennedy and others.

2. This information is being sent to you as a party who is believed to have a legal interest in this case in order to inform you of your rights.

(Division)
Family Court located at 24 New Chardon Street, Boston, MA 02114 (617) 725-8300

4. The petitioner may ask you to assent to his/her appointment or to actions taken by him/her after his/her appointment. Your assent allows the Court to act on a matter without further notice to you or a hearing. Before you assent, you should carefully read the information in this form, and you may want to seek the advice of a lawyer. After you assent, you cannot ask the Court to reconsider except for fraud or manifest error.
5. An individual or corporation (corporate fiduciary) appointed as an executor, administrator, guardian, conservator or trustee is often called a fiduciary because they act in a position of trust and are responsible for their actions in administering the estate. The fiduciary must accept the appointment and agree to perform the duties of the position by filing a bond. The bond must have sufficient sureties in an amount approved by a judge to provide guarantees that the fiduciary will discharge his/her duties under the law. An individual fiduciary can be exempt from providing sureties if the requirement is waived by the deceased person in his/her will. Corporate fiduciaries are exempt from giving sureties on their bond by statute. In addition, the heirs of the estate, and other interested persons, other than creditors, may assent to the bond being without sureties. No provision for waiving sureties on the bond is provided in a guardianship of the estate or conservatorship. Interested persons may request a judge to require sureties on the bond at any time. An action on the bond may be brought by an interested person, if a fiduciary has failed to perform the duties of the position.
6. A fiduciary is required, within three months of appointment, to file an inventory of the real and personal property which has come into the fiduciary's possession or knowledge. If no inventory is filed, an interested person may petition the Court to order the fiduciary to file an inventory.
