

Communion

1 Corinthians 11:23-30 NKJV

1 Corinthians 11:23 - For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread;

1 Corinthians 11:24 - and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

1 Corinthians 11:25 - In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

1 Corinthians 11:26 - For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes.

1 Corinthians 11:27 - Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 11:28 - But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

1 Corinthians 11:29 - For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

1 Corinthians 11:30 - For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep.

Communion is one of the most important observances we do. TAWA believe Christians should obey the Lord's command, "do this in remembrance of Me," every week, following the example set by the Apostles. Communion is the central part of our worship.

Jesus entered into a covenant (contract) with His disciples at the first communion event. This event commemorates His sacrifice for our sins, and was to take place the following morning. This covenant that was sealed between Jesus and His followers, was the "New Covenant" spoken of in Jeremiah 31:31-33. And through this covenant all of the believers and followers of Christ, Jesus will become co-heirs with Him in the Kingdom. See Galatians 3:26-29. We are made co-heirs through the sacrifice of His body and blood, and by being joined to Him in baptism, the "symbol of His death," See Romans 6:1-8.

Psalm 2, as well as Romans 8:16-25, tells us that the "inheritance" is that of the whole world and all of its inhabitants. And those who are worthy will serve as kings and priests on the earth, Revelation 5:10 says.
