Action from the heart of the cell

DIATHERMY 448. Science applied to regeneration and recovery.

Any unsightly imperfection or disorder results in a change in the cell electrical potential. The consequences triggered by this affect our morphology in a highly diverse manner, so we need a precise energy that activates or slows down cell pulse. This rebalancing and regenerating global action recovers the damaged body tissues progressively.

Binary Premium emits an adequate high-frequency signal of 448 KHz, scientifically supported to achieve intercellular ion mobilisation and action from the heart of the cell. Its modes of application, capacity monopolar and resistive monopolar, allow to reach all tissues, from the dermis to the bone tissue.

448 KHz frequency

ELECTRO-STIMULATION. The most efficient electrotherapy.

Binary treatment is complemented with electro-stimulation to achieve an optimum result, recovering muscle tone and reducing fatty tissue.

FACIAL ELECTROLIFTING

- Activation of microcirculation and general metabolism with a revitalising effect for tissues.
- Tone normalisation. Improves muscle quality affected by the gravitational effect that occasionally causes more marked fine lines.

Pointer electrodes facilitate precision and control in each application manoeuvre according to the muscle being worked on.

ELECTRO-LIPOLYSIS

The lipolytic current designed for Binary is intended to stimulate the local level sympathetic system and trigger a triglyceride degradation process, while it activates the circulatory system to facilitate the removal of fat content. This is possible thanks to the hands-free electro-stimulation bands that synchronize two processes: the degradation of fat and its drainage in an automatic way.

ELECTRO-FIRMING

The Binary excitomotor current has a firming function. Its design stimulates sequential muscle contractions, which makes them ideal in toning and muscle recovery treatments.

The electro-stimulation bands distribute the current evenly on the whole muscle group. For specific work on specific muscles the connections system also allows us to use individual electrodes.

5 techniques in the same device that together complement and strengthen each other

The medical-aesthetic professional community has studied and reached the conclusion that to deal effectively with the most sought after facial and body treatments in booths various agents need to be used, which work together well and enhance their effects.

The in sequence application of the capacitive and resistive diathermy and the electro-stimulation is a methodological commitment able to globally treat all causes which create problems such as ageing skin, dermal laxity, loss of muscle tone, cellulite processes or excess of volume.
