Joey: The Rising Nail Artist

Joey is an 18-year-old beauty enthusiast with a passion for creativity and precision. Currently enrolled in a beauty technician program, Joey specializes in gel and Gel-X nail extensions, creating stunning designs that reflect her artistic flair. Beyond her studies, she runs a thriving small business crafting custom press-on nails, offering her clients personalized designs that are as unique as they are. Though young, Joey's talent and dedication shine brightly. Each nail she designs is a testament to her artistic vision and meticulous craftsmanship. Whether it's a bold, statement-making set or a delicate, intricate design, Joey pours her heart into every project. Her dream? To become a master in the beauty industry, known for pushing boundaries and setting trends in nail artistry.

With her blend of skill, ambition, and creativity, Joey is on a path to transform her passion into a lifelong career. Those lucky enough to wear her creations know they're not just nails—they're wearable works of art.
