ROYAL CLASSIFICATION SOCIETY ELECTRONIC CERTIFICATES

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to officially inform that Royal Classification Society (RCS) will be using electronic certificates for the vessels and companies which we are certifying. The certificates will have a unique QR code which can be verified from our official website.

Any certificates issued without the QR code is not and in no way issued from our office and those certificates will be considered invalid. Vessels, companies, and/or any related party with the possession of certificates deemed invalid and/or without the QR code will be subject for investigation and could later be subject for legal actions.

For any concerns and clarifications please contact our office at info@rcsclass.org

This is effective from the date of the issuance of the letter and shall remain in effect until otherwise changed or cancelled.
