

MEDITATION

Meditation to still
Still the mind
Long ago forgotten
Long ago's time

Re-introducing
Myself to Tao
Finding it hard
The way and how

But I am dedicated
To this study
I'm on a journey
Yes, I'm am ready

I read the passage
As it's daily
Journal my feeling
As if my duty

I love Tao
With all my heart
I love my faith
Keep humble, not smart

It's about the karma
Living the right way
Do it to do it
With nothing to say

Live the right life
Universal oneness
Universe will love
Attempts at pureness

As long as I keep
Myself in line
Study my book
All will be fine

Enlightenment I seek
One day I'll find
One day it will come
A day will shine

This world is crazy
As I seek peace
I just try harder
To sit with my grace

Searching from Tao
You must be strong
Keep it secret
A journey is long

The people I tell
Have laughed in my face
Told me I'm wrong
Hissed my disgrace

I know firsthand
The lecture I've faced
When revealing my Tao
A fire was set

That's ok
What does she know?
I know Tao
Where did she go?
