

IMPLY ORGANIZED

From Stressed to Calm:
Tips For The Holidays

Cheryl Spater
Organizing Specialist

Downsize Your Decor

As you pull out any holiday decorations, keep only your favorite items. Give away the rest! Ask yourself if you really love it. Giving items away now will save you time and energy later. Remember - you will have to pack up the decorations after the holidays.

More tips can be found on my website:
simplyorganized4you.com

Happy Organizing!

Look at your home with fresh eyes.

Take a look at your home as if you were a stranger. Focus on the main areas guests may occupy, such as the living room, bathroom, kitchen, and guest room. Putting things where they belong will go a long way in making your home clutter free.

Take time to donate.

This is a good time to decide what to keep, where, and why. Donate old toys, books, and clothing that no longer serve a purpose in your life. Your clutter is someone else's treasure.

Consider hiring a professional.

If organizing your home feels like an overwhelming task, consider hiring a professional for an objective approach. Sometimes a consultation or hands-on organizing with a professional can give you the kick-start you need to tackle the task.

My wish for you is to have more fun and laughter during the holiday season. With all of the to-do lists that mysteriously grow, it's important to focus on enjoying your friends and family.

