

The 7th APC Leadership Luncheon Lecture

Ms. Constance H. Lau

Participants that joined the 7th APC Luncheon Lecture, Fall 2014.

At the leadership lecture hosted by CAPE/APC at the Willows Restaurant, Constance H. Lau, President & CEO of Hawaiian Electric Industries (HEI), delivered an inspiring lecture on “Lessons Learned on Life and Leadership.” Ms. Lau reviewed her experiences as CEO of American Savings Bank, a member of the Board of Kamehameha Schools, and chair of the National Infrastructure Advisory Council (NIAC), which advises President Barack Obama on sixteen infrastructure sectors and their information systems.

In her talk, Ms. Lau emphasized the importance of any public or private organization having a clear mission statement. In addressing problems that must be solved, she also noted the value of being open and laying common facts out on the table, so that everyone in the organization sees and understands the same situation.

She went on to say that in leading and transforming any

2014: Another Rewarding Year

Participants from Summer 2014

CAPE has completed another great year, serving over 300 participants from Japan, Korea, Thailand, and the U.S. in a total of twenty-two workshops, lectures or seminars. In the summer workshops, twenty-four students from several universities in Korea and Japan attended the summer International Program for College Students. At the same time, eight separate English Teacher Workshops served nearly 250 English teachers, mainly from Korea. The program for nursing students hosted twenty-seven students for a full month. Both the English teachers and the nursing students made visits to their colleagues at local schools and medical facilities, respectively, and by all reports hugely enjoyed their opportunities to see how their American and Hawaiian counterparts work.

These programs had many outstanding participants, and we are proud to announce that a total of thirty awards were handed out, in the form of fellowships (2), merit awards (20), tuition scholarships (7), and one grant for housing and board. We thank our donors for making these gifts possible.

The 25th Annual Language and Culture Seminar

Fall 2014:

New Zealand, Australia, Indonesia & Malaysia

Participants from various professional and academic disciplines joined CAPE at the 25th Language & Culture Seminar, Fall 2014

CAPE hosted the 25th Language and Culture Seminar in November. This year, the topics were New Zealand, Australia, Indonesia, and Malaysia.

Dr. Raukura Roa spoke on Māori music and haka, the Māori warrior challenge. The audience was thrilled by her performance of a haka chant, and was fascinated to see how many parallels there are between Hawaiian and Māori culture and history. Dr. Leonard Andaya gave an interesting and informative lecture on how the cultures of Malaysia and Indonesia, while historically closely related, have in recent years diverged in how religion plays a role in government, and how Sharia law is applied differently in the two countries.

The American Studies Forum, CAPE’s flagship program, ran from August 6-13, 2014, and was attended by eleven participants from four countries, including the U.S. Later, on three Saturdays in November, the Language and Culture Seminar featured several speakers discussing the history, culture, language, and economies of New Zealand, Australia, Indonesia and Malaysia. Finally, CAPE’s newest program, the APC Leadership Luncheon Lecture, gave the stage to its seventh guest speaker, Ms. Constance H. Lau, President & CEO of Hawaii Electric Industries, in December.

CAPE extends its thanks to staff, faculty, volunteers, and supporters for making all these programs possible. We had a busy and successful summer and fall in 2014, and we look forward to continuing in this work in 2015!

25th Annual Language and Culture Seminar

Dr. Barbara Watson Andaya covered a huge swath of Australian history in four short lectures. She spoke first about the pride modern Australians take in their original convict settlers; then she addressed a darker past, the relationship of these European settlers to Australia’s native population. This was followed by a discussion of a more enlightened national immigration policy in recent decades, and ended with a few words on the importance of Australia’s participation in World War I, and how this formed much of that nation’s modern self-image.

CAPE thanks these wonderful speakers, all faculty at the University of Hawaii. We welcome anyone interested to join us again at this year’s Seminar, now slated for November, and also at the “Asia Today” Series, to be held in April-May. Please visit www.cape.edu for more information.

group, it is key to develop trust, transparency, and inclusion among the staff and senior management. Success, Ms. Lau pointed out, comes down to relationships. While actually achieving agreement or consensus among many stakeholders may be difficult, this does not have to be an impossible barrier; the important thing is for stakeholders—the people who have the most to gain from finding solutions—to understand each other and respect divergent views.

As a final note, Ms. Lau talked about her discovery of the value of having an empty chair at the table when her organizations would have meeting. It served to remind everyone there of the consumer, or customer, or student—the most important stakeholders, who might not be in the room to share their views.

Dr. Edward J. Shultz
Appointed
Interim Chancellor of Hawaii Tokai
International College

Dr. Edward J. Shultz

Dr. Edward J. Shultz was appointed as Interim Chancellor of Hawaii Tokai International College as of January 1, 2015. For the past 40 years, Dr. Shultz has served as a professor of history, Dean of Pacific and Asian Studies, and Assistant Vice Chancellor for Exchange Programs at the University of Hawaii. After his retirement from the professorship in 2013, he spent a year as a visiting professor at Sogang University in Korea in 2014. He has been a member of the CAPE board of directors since its inception in 1981. Dr. Shultz, author of numerous publications, was active/involved in academic/scholarly exchange and served as an invited speaker at many academic institutions in the Asia-Pacific region.

CAPE Friends/Korea Met in October

The supporters of Korea once again met at the D-Cube City Korean Restaurant in Seoul, Korea, on October 17, 2014. Following a lunch and warm exchanges of aloha, the program began with welcome remarks by Mr. Young-Tae Kim, President of CAPE Friends/Korea, who thanked everyone for their generous support of CAPE for the past year. All members present at the meeting were deeply impressed by the elegant décor of traditional Korean restaurant in the D-Cube City and the delicious food.

Dr. Jai-Ho Yoo, CAPE President, made an annual report highlighting the program's accomplishments, steady support of many organizations, and follow-up activities strengthening ties with alumni. He also reported that CAPE has a family of over 10,000 alumni from 16 countries, and that 300 scholars, teachers, students and nurses from four countries participated in the 2014 winter/summer programs; and that a total of 49 CAPE fellowships/scholarships were awarded.

Dr. Yoo especially congratulated Mr. Young-Tae Kim, Chairman of Daesung Group, upon the steady growth of the D-Cube City despite a nationwide economic downturn. D-Cube City, a masterpiece, was created two years ago, and is a mega-complex including department stores, office spaces, park, art center, parking garage, theatre, hotel, restaurants, theme park, and private residences.

A hearty Mahalo is due to all who have supported CAPE over the years, and especially to Mr. Young-Tae Kim, whose generous contributions allow CAPE to continue its level of quality programs in the service of Asia-Pacific participants.

The following CAPE friends were in attendance at this annual meeting: Mr. Young-Tae Kim, Dr. Choon-Hak Cho, Dr. Sung-Kyu Cho, Dr. Myung-Seok Park, Mr. Chul-Woo Yang, Hon. Seok-Soon Yoon, and Dr. Jai-Ho Yoo.

The 34th Annual American Studies Forum

(Aug 6-13, 2014)

Scholars from Japan, Korea, and Thailand at the 34th American Studies Forum, with Dr. Deane Neubauer & Dr. Gary Pak, August 2014.

The American Studies Forum, CAPE's flagship program, hosted six speakers who delivered talks addressing current topics in American literature, media, politics, and culture. Eleven participants from Japan, Korea, the US, and Thailand came to hear talks on topics that included "Late Strange Twists on the American Dream: Edward Albee, Hunter Thompson, Stephen Colbert, and other Satirists of the Pageant of the Exceptional," a wonderful presentation by Dr. Craig Howes. The other speakers included Dr. Laura Lyons, Dr. Deane Neubauer, Dr. Gary Pak, Dr. Ron Bontekoe, and Dr. Manfred Steger, with a wide range of topics on American history, culture, and recent trends.

101st Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English

(Aug 5-14, 2014)

A small group of fourteen English teachers from Japan and Korea came for a nine-day session, where they heard lectures on a variety of topics from our special UH faculty. Dr. Hanh Thi Nguyen spoke on developing interactive competence for EFL learners, for example; and others discussed testing methodologies and the value of games in the language classroom. Short but intensive, this workshop was well-received by participants.

102nd Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English

(June 28-July 26, 2014)

English teachers in the 102nd Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English, with Ms. Priscilla Faucette, Mr. Gavin Furukawa, and Mrs. Aileen Moriwake, July 2014.

The first of several groups of sponsored teachers came from Jeonbuk Province, Korea, to join our popular Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English. Supported by their Office of Educations, these nineteen teachers, accompanied by Ms. Seon-Yong An, visited Maryknoll School (with thanks to Mr. Dan Nagami, Director of Special Programs), and attended English classes and special lectures. Their classes were led by Ms. Priscilla Faucette, Mr. Gavin Furukawa, Mr. Myron Monte, Mrs. Aileen Moriwake, and Ms. Bonnie Sylwester; special guest faculty from UH spoke on foreign language education and learning.

103rd Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English

(July 3-July 30, 2014)

English teachers in the 103rd Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English, with Mr. Gavin Furukawa, Dr. Richard Day, Dr. Sandra McKay, & Dr. Richard Schmidt, July 2014.

Fourteen secondary English teachers from Gyeonggi Province, supported by Sookmyung Women's University, came to Honolulu for the month of July. They polished both their language skills and their teaching mastery, with a rigorous mix of language and professional classes. Their instructors included Ms. Eriza Bareng, Mr. Gavin Furukawa, Mr. Myron Monte, and Ms. Bonnie Sylwester, as well as our star guest speakers from the University of Hawaii, including Dr. Richard Schmidt and Dr. Sandra McKay. Participants visited Punahou School's Wo International Center (with thanks to Director Emily McCarren and teacher Ms. Belle Murashige), and the Maryknoll School (thanks to Director of Special Programs Dan Nagami).

104th Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English (IGSE)

(July 21-Aug 17, 2014)

English teachers in the 104th Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English, with Mr. Kenton Harsch, Dr. Christina Higgins, Dr. Sandra McKay, & Mr. Myron Monte, August 2014.

From mid-July, twenty-six graduate students from Gyeonggi Province, Korea, sponsored by the International Graduate School of English, and chaperoned by Ms. Moonjay Kim. They came to see first-hand how American schools handle foreign language education, and to experience the immersion experience for themselves. Their culture classes were taught by instructors Anita Bruce, Justin Mew, and Myron Monte, and their lectures by experts from UH, including Dr. Graham Crookes and Mr. Kenton Harsch. CAPE must also thank the hosts at the various middle schools and high schools these future teachers visited for a glimpse of real-world teaching. They went to Dole Middle School (Principal Tiare Uli'i; Vice Principals Mavis Tasaka and Wendy Horikami; Reading Curriculum Coordinator Patti L. Laba), Farrington High School (Principal Alfredo Carganilla; and Student Activities Coordinator, Henry Yim), Kalakaua Middle School (Principal Lorelei Aiwohi and Vice Principal Natalie Mun-Takata), Niu Valley Middle School (Principal Sean Tajima and English Language Dept Head Gwen Lee), and Washington Middle School (Principal Michael Harano).

105th Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English

(Aug 7-Aug 20, 2014)

A group of twenty-four English teachers came from Ibaraki, Japan, led by Dr. Naomi Ueno. In addition to their classes and lectures given by Gavin Furukawa, Myron Monte, Bonnie Sylwester, and Dr. Richard Schmidt, these teachers visited the University Lab School. We thank Principal Keoni Jeremiah for providing this great opportunity.

106th Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English (ISGE-2)

(July 28-Aug 23, 2014)

English teachers in the 106th Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English, with Dr. Christina Higgins, Dr. Sandra McKay, & Mr. Myron Monte, August 2014.

The last large group in Honolulu for the summer included twenty more graduate students from Gyeonggi Province, Korea, also sponsored by the International Graduate School of English. They visited Lunalilo Elementary School (Principal Amy Kantowitz and Coordinator Lorraine Ching), Royal Elementary School (Principal Eleanor Gonsalves and Coordinator Ms. Shannelle Loo), Kawanakoa Middle School (Principal Ann Sugibayashi), and Kaimuki High School (Principal Mr. Wade Araki). For their lectures and special sessions, we thank Dr. Graham Crookes, Richard Day, Dr. Elizabeth Gilliland, Dr. Christina Higgins, Dr. Sandra McKay, Mr. Myron Monte, Dr. Hanh Thi Nguyen, Dr. Richard Schmidt, Ms. Leanne Sims, and Ms. Bonnie Sylwester.

29th Workshop for Elementary Teachers of English

(July 30-Aug 21, 2014)

One of two groups of elementary school teachers came for three weeks in August to study English and language teaching techniques. These seventeen English teachers from Gwangju were sponsored by their Office of Education, and were accompanied by Ms. Hwanna Lee. They visited Aina Haina Elementary School (Principal, Mr. Tony Gayer); Puuhale Elementary School (Principal, Ms.

Miki St. Laurent); and Queen Kaahumanu Elementary School (Principal, Mr. Christopher Daly, and teacher, Ms. Sherry Takenishi). Their special lectures were delivered by UH faculty, including among others Dr. Elizabeth Gilliland, Dr. Christina Higgins, and Dr. Hanh Thi Nguyen. Instructors Mr. Gavin Furukawa, Mr. Myron Monte, and Mrs. Aileen Moriwake taught their teaching techniques and culture classes.

30th Workshop for Elementary Teachers of English

(July 3-July 30, 2014)

English teachers in the 30th Workshop for Elementary Teachers of English, with Dr. Richard Day, Ms. Priscilla Faucette, Mr. Gavin Furukawa, Dr. Sandra McKay, & Dr. Richard Schmidt, July 2014.

The first of two groups of elementary school teacher of English joined us for the month of July. Thirteen teachers from Gyeonggi Province, sponsored by Sookmyung Women's University, came for the popular workshop in which they both received lessons in English, and got the chance for practical use in attending lectures in SLA, and visiting local schools. They were delighted to visit Punahou and Maryknoll Schools, thanks to the hospitality of Director Emily McCarren of Punahou's Wo International Center, teacher Ms. Belle Murashige, and Maryknoll's

Director of Special Programs, Mr. Dan Nagami. Teaching techniques and culture lessons were delivered by Ms. Anita Bruce, Ms. Priscilla Faucette, Mr. Gavin Furukawa, and Mr. Myron Monte. Star faculty from the University of Hawaii, including Dr. Graham Crookes and Dr. Richard Day, spoke on foreign language teaching and learning.

64th International Program for College Nursing Students

(June 30-July 26, 2014)

Participants in the 64th Program for College Nursing Students, with Ms. Anita Bruce, Dr. John Casken, & Mr. Christopher Hunter, July 2014.

Dr. Donghee Kim led twenty-seven nursing students from Inje and other colleges in Korea to visit medical facilities in Hawaii, hear professional lectures, and polish their English skills. In addition to English and American culture lessons taught by Ms. Anita Bruce, Mr. Christopher Hunter, and Mrs. Aileen Moriwake, these students had the chance to visit several hospitals. CAPE extends its thanks to Gayle Oshima at Kuakini Medical Center; Betty Karratii at Kapiolani MC for Women & Children; Lauren A. Chun and Gayle Seifullin at Kaiser Permanente; Brigitte McKale at Pali Momi MC; and Cyndi Kitkowski, Cynthia Kamikawa, and Mimi Harris at Queen's for making these visits possible. Finally, Dr. Pat Nishimoto, Dr. John Casken, Dr. Verna Hanashiro, and Mr. Marcelino P. Ulep shared their professional knowledge in special lectures on the UH campus.

69th International Program for College Students

(Aug 4-30, 2014)

Participants in the 69th Program for College Students, with Ms. Jeanette Hall & Mrs. Aileen Moriwake, August 2014.

Another month-long program brought thirteen university students from several different cities in Korea and Japan. Coming from Chungang and Honam Universities in Korea, and Matsuyama Shinonome College, Kyoto University of Foreign Studies, and others in Japan, these students spent their mornings in classes with Mrs. Aileen Moriwake, Ms. Jeanette Hall, and Ms. Eriza Bareng. Afternoons and weekends were filled with field excursions and free exploration of Hawaii's delights.

70th International Program for College Students

Participants in the 70th Program for College Students, with Ms. Kasey Larson & Ms. Leanne Sims, August 2014.

(July 28- Aug 30, 2014)

During the month of August, eleven students from Gyeongju University came to experience Hawaii's sun and surf while polishing their English skills. Their instructors, Ms. Kasey Larson and Ms. Leanne Sims, led the classes on English and American culture; and the students themselves explored the islands with visits to locations such as the State Capitol and Iolani Palace.

Meeting with Dr. Fred Yoo at Christmas Dinner

Fred Yoo (now CAPE's co-president) will succeed Dr. Jai-Ho Yoo at the time of his retirement

The 2014 CAPE Christmas dinner at the Sheraton Waikiki Hotel Kai Marketplace was a joyous opportunity to exchange aloha with the CAPE Board of Directors and Advisory Council. Especially momentous was welcoming Dr. Fred Yoo, who will be joining the CAPE family as its co-president. It was a wonderful evening filled with friendly conversation and the exchange of ideas for the development of CAPE's future. The party was filled with warmth and hope in welcoming a happy new year. Also in attendance was Miss Esther Yoo, Fred's daughter, an accomplished violinist. All enjoyed the celebration and dreamed of a sweet and bright new year!

Participants included Mr. John Farias, Mr. John and Mrs. Maylani Chang, Dr. James and Mrs. Carilyn Shon, Dr. Jai-Ho and Mrs. Rosa Yoo, Dr. Fred Yoo, and Miss Esther Yoo.

SAYING ALOHA TO PEOPLE I MEET

The following was written by Miss Su Bin Sin (Julia), a participant in the 66th Program for College Nursing Students (January 12 - February 7, 2015)

I joined Mr. Myron Monte's class on January 20. In that class, I was able to learn about Hawaiian words and song. He said that his name (given Hawaiian name "Kana Kaloka") means Santa Claus. Also, I learned Hula (Polynesian) dance while I was singing Kamate. The most interesting thing I learned during class was the meaning of Aloha. Actually I just said Aloha, not Alo-ha. Mr. Monte said that 'ha' means breath (of life). So, Aloha's real meaning is I want to say "hello" to you from the bottom of my heart. That was so touching for me. When I first heard the bus announcement say 'Aloha' to the passengers, I wasn't aware that Aloha meant respect and love. Now, I want to say 'Aloha' to many people with respect and sincere love.
