

Beth Davila Waldman

Born in Princeton, New Jersey, Beth Davila Waldman received her B.F.A. in Sculpture at The San Francisco Art Institute. Beth has been awarded residencies at 18th Street Art Residency, Kala Art Institute, Playa Institute, and Edition/Basel in Basel, Switzerland. In 2019, her work was featured at a satellite art fair during the 2019 Hong Kong Art Basel Week, and she presented her work as a speaker at the 18th Annual Photo Alliance Lecture Series at the San Francisco Art Institute's Osher Lecture Hall. She has received several awards such as the PhotoAlliance 2020 Bay Area Current(ly) Award and 2019 Women's Grant (NY). This past year, Beth's work was part of a group exhibition the de Young OPEN at the San Francisco based de Young Museum and also been included in the Codex Foundation's 2021 Extraction Exhibition Catalog. Beth's studio is currently based in Los Angeles, CA.