 Our king has set the faithful apart
 Pouring joy on every heart
 He saves, he keeps
 So we sleep in peace

And through the second Adam, You've rescued us from death

Oh LORD our Lord, how majestic is Your name
Oh LORD our Lord, Your name in all the earth

Yet You have made him lower than the angels for a while You've given him a glorious crown, honor in the earth
All animals and birds and fish, all created things
You've given him dominion o'er, all things under his feet

D

But the humble will be lifted tall

The blasphemer laughs as he curses Your name

He thinks that You've forgotten, he thinks there's no blame

His mouth full of oppression, and his joy is the orphan's pain

But our King is righteous-- He's vengeance for the poor

He's cut the arm off evil--till evil is no more

He's listened to our troubles and our hearts have been restored

Lord lift up Your hand--reveal Yourself

And remember the afflicted

King of every land--the nations will fall

But the humble will be lifted tall

Psalm 11

F Bb F
In the LORD I take refuge;
Bb F C
how can you say to my soul,
F Bb F
"Flee like a bird to your mountain,
 Bb F C
For the wicked bend the bow;
 Dm F Bb
they fit their arrow to the string
F C
to shoot in the dark at the upright
Dm F Bb
if the foundations are destroyed,
 F C
what can the righteous do?"

Bb F C
For the LORD is righteous;
Bb Dm C
He loves righteous deeds;
Bb C F
the upright will see His face.

The LORD is in His holy temple;
the LORD's throne in heaven above
His eyes see all things, His eyelids test
All the children of man.
The LORD tests the righteous,
but His soul hates
the wicked and the violent.
Let Him rain coals on the wicked's head;
They'll taste His fiery judgement

For the LORD is righteous;
He loves righteous deeds;
the upright shall see His face.
For the LORD is righteous;
He loves righteous deeds;
the upright shall see His face.

Psalm 12

When the righteous are not righteous anymore

And the faithful ones have disappeared

I will call upon the help of the Lord

And He will hear

When speech from double-hearts is on their lips

And every word that's spoken is a lie

The afflicted and the poor begin to groan

He hears their cry

And He will rise up to close the mouths

Of the boastful and the proud

Delivering His children

From the wicked on the prowl

His words are pure as silver

Seven times refined

We're longing for a savior, so Lord arise

When man celebrates the things that have no worth
He thinks that he has power in his voice
His vain and idle poetry is nothing more than noise
But the Lord will save us from this generation
There is shelter for the one who calls His name
The burdened will find refuge
While the arrogant will know his own shame

And He will rise up to close the mouths
Of the boastful and the proud
Delivering His children
From the wicked on the prowl
His words are pure as silver
Seven times refined
We're longing for a savior, so Lord arise

Psalm 13

My enemies have brought me disgrace

D E A F#m

D E A A7

D E A E/G# F#m

D E A
You've been good to me all of my days

D E F#m
You've been good to me for all of my days

Look at me and answer, O God
Give light to my eyes that I may see
My foes rejoice, they delight when I fall
But from death You have lifted me
From death You have lifted me

But I will trust in Your unfailing love
I will sing a song of praise
My heart rejoices in your salvation
You've been good to me for all of my days
You've been good to me for all of my days

The LORD looks down to see the sons of men

The LORD looks down to see the sons of men

Do any seek the Lord? Or understand His Word?

The LORD looks down to see the sons of men

They have all turned aside; none does good

They have all turned aside; none does good

They all have turned aside, in greed and sin and pride

They have all turned aside; none does good

Don't they know to call upon the Lord?

Don't they know to call upon the Lord?

Don't the wicked know, to leave God's people alone?

Don't they know to call upon the Lord?

The wicked will be frightened when He comes

The wicked will be frightened when He comes

He'll bring salvation near, to His people, let them cheer

The wicked will be frightened when He comes
