Food Drive update

Brothers and Sisters, at press time for this newsletter the figure for the amount of food collected had not been finalized. Food is still being collected and must be picked up by the food bank to weigh. Remember this, whatever Branch 599's final figure is, the food banks are better off today than they were before May 14, thanks to the 24th Annual 2016 Letter Carriers Food Drive!

It was a tremendous feeling assisting carriers unloading their LLVs and vans. Filling up big cardboard boxes that sat on pallets and loading the transport trucks. It was awesome to observe carriers helping carriers, many carriers staying after work, off the clock to help out. Many came in on their scheduled day off to assist their brothers and sisters who worked and collected food throughout the day. I witnessed the camaraderie between carriers at the stations I visited, working for a common goal, to feed the needy in our community. There was one station that brought in sandwiches and many of the carriers came back to the office to unload food and eat lunch together. There was a station that had sandwiches donated by a local sandwich shop, and a station that had pizza bought. Many thanks go to the rural carriers, supervisors, managers, and postmasters who went above and beyond to support and help out. For those carriers who did not help out, there is always next year to lend a hand... your community service for the year.

We are looking for Branch 599 carriers to be part of the Food Drive Committee, to share ideas, to get involved. This year we ran the operation out of the union office, next year our committee will be more involved. Thanks again to all!

Committee of Presidents Meeting update

I attended the Committee of Presidents (COP) meeting in April in Atlanta, Georgia. There are two COP meetings per year held in different states. I look forward to acquiring and absorbing all the information that is made available. First through NALC

President Fred Rolando as he addressed the delegation of over 150

Tony Diaz
President
Branch 599

Branch Presidents for the entire first day, Sunday. Secondly, through time spent with fellow Branch Presidents from across the country is an opportune time to share and gather different ideas with similar issues. In addition, you can get an idea about issues Tampa may not be dealing with at this time but could affect us in the future.

The meeting commenced with NALC President Fred Rolando welcoming the presidents on Sunday morning, and Monday featured Director of City Delivery Brian Renfroe. The negotiations between the NALC and the USPS are ongoing and communication between the sides are much less hostile with new Postmaster General Megan Brennan. There is hope that the parties can agree to a new contract despite the fact the APWU was not able to secure a new contract and entered binding arbitration. However, the NALC is very prepared in the event no agreement is reached, and we proceed to arbitration.

Negotiations include closing the wage and benefit gap between career carriers and CCAs. In addition, the CCA hours are being addressed; currently there are limited provisions, CCAs may work 11.50 hours a day, 7 days a week, this total is 80.50 a week. A topic that is also being addressed is dignity and respect on the workroom floor.

Facts:

- 2,500 new routes have been created through CDRAAP.
- CDRAAP – The joint process is complete; 67 Districts were involved; ended May 16; only reviews remain.
- 65,000 or a third of our membership is either CCAs or converted CCAs to regular/career.
- 32,337 CCAs have been converted to career regular status.
- PTFs, 600 remaining nationwide, mostly in small remote areas. The PTFs that have not been promoted are fine where they are and do not want to be moved. Many of these PTFs are also fine working part-time; the NALC will not force any conversions.
- 54% nationwide CCA retention rate, very alarming.
- Amazon adding 2,700 new delivery areas (ZIPs).

Letter Carrier Workforce Facts:

- 69% male carriers

Statements

This month I want to discuss the importance of personal statements and their affect on a grievance. From a steward's prospective, a solid statement can be vital to the success of a case. Statements are the starting point to a grievance, this is your opportunity to tell what you saw or witnessed, what you know, explain your side of the story. Whether it is for a situation involving you or a fellow carrier, your statement matters.

I have one solid piece of advice and it is the best advice I can give to anyone writing a statement—tell the truth, tell the truth, and tell the truth. Do not fabricate a story, do not stretch the truth, do not make assumptions, and do not make allegations. Remember, should management challenge or dispute your statement, it is imperative that your side of the story is precise, consistent, and accurate. The integrity of your statement can make an impact on the case.

Pay attention to detail; the little things may be important. So, how is the most effective way to insure a statement is as factual and precise as possible? Write it the day a situation occurs, or as soon as possible while your thoughts are fresh in your mind. If you have a memory like mine, this is the best way. However, if this is not possible, then write down notes or specifics about an incident that will trigger your memory for when you are able to sit down and write it. Reminders such as a date(s), a time, who was involved (names), who else might be a witness, what was actually said between the parties, if applicable, a street name, an address, a tag number, a timeline, what may have caused an incident/accident, etc. Again, keeping these thoughts fresh in your mind will eliminate any uncertainty. Also include any prior issues relating to the same subject. Eliminate uncertainties such as: well I think I saw this, or I believe it was the 3rd of the month, or was it him or the other guy, was this said first or was that said first, I think I had 5 certified letters that day, I believe it was after lunch.

Your statement can also become a source for who a steward may want to interview. If you identify others who also witnessed what you saw, heard, or have previously experienced a similar situation; the steward would want to interview them. This witness could shed additional light on the case and verify a position or direction a steward may be leaning towards.

Begin by writing a rough draft of your statement with all of your thoughts

Sharing Our Members' Joys and Sorrows

Our deepest sympathy and prayerful support is extended to the family of Diana Lopez [retiree] whose passing was May 11; and to Pam Turner [Sun City Center/Sales & Retention Center] at the passing of her mother, April 25.

Correction: In our May newsletter, it was erroneously reported that Armand Whitman's mother passed. The editor sincerely apologizes for that mistake, as it was Armand Whitman [retiree] that passed, March 29.

We'll miss you, Pat!

Long time Town 'N Country carrier Pat Erbe transferred to Spring Hill and NALC Branch 2008, Clearwater. Pat commuted to and from Tampa for over 25 years and the time came to work closer to home. Pat will be greatly missed; he was reliable, polite, and a true professional. So from all the carriers at T'nC, all of the members of Branch 599 and the Branch office...GOOD LUCK, PAT!

Writers, Cartoonists, Artists

All Members of Branch 599 can submit original works for possible publication in this newsletter.

It is the policy of this publication that all articles submitted for print must be signed by the writer. Please submit any and all articles to be published in the Tampa Letter Carrier to the Editor via email at editor@nalc599.com and also to the Branch Office at nalc599@verizon.net no later than the 5th of each month.

and data. Let your steward review your rough draft before finalizing your statement. There may be some information in one part of your statement that contradicts another part. Your steward may also question a part of your statement and ask if you are absolutely sure you saw this or are you sure you heard that. There may be information that is irrelevant or inappropriate or simply not needed to include.

Hopefully this article emphasizes the significance of a statement and is helpful in organizing your thoughts.

Quick Hits:

Information you should know

*) It's official: Floridians may Vote by Mail

Like many states, Florida allows voters to vote with a no-excuse absentee ballot through the mail. Historically, the term absentee ballot has been considered misleading because anyone can request a ballot by mail in the Sunshine State; however, voters in many states traditionally have had to provide some type of justification to qualify for absentee voting.

Florida letter carriers helped convince the state legislature to pass a bill replacing the term absentee ballot with vote by mail, making it clear that voting by mail is not just for those who might be out of town on Election Day, but for anyone who wishes to vote by mail. Our legislative dollars at work (Political Fund).

—April Postal Record

*) Final CPR Class for 2016 will be Wednesday, May 18, at 7 PM. Please see flyer for more details...

*) CCA Town Hall Meeting was held Thursday, April 28; 35 CCAs from Tampa and Brandon attended. Important information was presented and then open conversation with a question and answer period. There are issues with how the CCAs are being treated and they will be addressed. We must improve on the 54% retention rate both locally and nationwide.

*) In case you missed it: Is the Postal Service struggling?
Economics ending March 31, 2016 USPS's YTD 2016 results: $1.8 billion operating profit:
The U.S. Postal Service's February 2016 and year-to-date 2016 results were posted earlier last week on the Postal Regulatory Commission's website.

For the month of February, the Postal Service had a $233 million operating profit. Year-to-date through February 2016 (the first 5 months of the postal fiscal year), USPS now has a $1.8 billion operating profit.

This year's year-to-date operating profit is significantly higher than projected, and it's higher than the Postal Service's operating profit at the same time last year (which, at $1.4 billion, was also very good).

Look forward to talking to you again on the next

The Birdseye View

National Agreement

Before the June Newsletter is received we will have ended the 2011-2016 USPS/NALC National Agreement with the exception, as usual, of continuing to bargain while following the existing contract. Impasse could lead to a resolve under mediation or arbitration; hopefully we agree to terms that both parties negotiate for that would be the best result.

The American Postal Workers Union (APWU) contract that expired last May went all the way to arbitration with a decision from the Arbitration due between June and August.

The National Rural Letter Carriers Association settled their contract with pretty much similar contract as the previous with percentage increases and cost of living allowances.

The NALC is aggressively trying to negotiate a contract that would shorten the divide between the career and non-career carriers regarding pay and benefits that were passed down from the Das Arbitration Award in the 2011-2016 contract. That award has led to the worst retention rate of new employees since USPS collective bargaining began. Even though we have converted thousands of non-career employees to career status, the staffing issues still occur due to lack of retention of new employees that are needed to fill all the positions left by large numbers of retirement and long term absence employees. Time will tell if the negotiations are successful or we leave it to an arbitrator to decide what neither party could have learned to live with.

Politically Speaking

It appears that the rival parties are finally narrowing their respective candidates for the major party nominations for President of the United States, but we won't know until all the dust settles from the contentious battles that seem to have them all divided amongst the party establishments. This might be a fight that the citizens actually want considering the level of all the polls of that show division in both parties that call for cooperation and less stagnation to actually serve the electorate and not the elected.

The endorsements of labor so far in local elections are included in our newsletter. With great pride one who is the son-in-law of Denio Sanchez, a life member of Branch 599, Carl Hinson has been endorsed by The West Central Florida Labor Council, AFL-CIO, for Judge of the 13th Judicial Circuit, Group 3, Hillsborough County. Carl's parents are also both members of the IBEW locally. We also have many others who are friends of labor that are being endorsed and need our support. There are remaining screenings going on until July and we will keep you informed as they are all completed. The AFL-CIO COPE committee will finalize the national election candidates at their June meeting and we will inform all the members of those endorsements once announced.

The action plan is being implemented for election canvassing, phone banking, and the operation to get out the vote. If you are interested in participating as a volunteer, please contact our office and let us know how you would like to help. Passing out leaflets, phone banking, canvassing door to door, distributing signs...there are many jobs available for volunteers to be part of the process. Encouraging eligible voters to register and vote is very easy now due to the change in Florida for universal vote by mail... just register and request to vote by mail regardless whether you are away or at home. That law goes into effect July 1, 2016. It took years of discussion in Tallahassee to finally get this great legislation passed to reduce voter suppression and help get the voters the best opportunity to vote without being in long lines for long hours. This is America's greatest freedom so don't neglect this hard fought for privilege!
