

I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day

I heard the bells on Christmas Day, Their old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet the words repeat of peace on earth, good will to men.

I thought how, as the day had come, The belfries of all Christendom
Had rolled along th'unbroken song of peace on earth, good will to men.

And in despair I bowed my head: "There is no peace on earth," I said,
"For hate is strong, and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will to men".

Yet pealed the bells more loud and deep: "God is not dead, nor doth He sleep;
The wrong shall fall, the right prevail, With peace on earth, good will to men".

Then ringing, singing on its way, The world revolved from night to day,
A voice, a chime, a chant sublime of peace on earth, good well to men!
