

2024 Graduates

Amherst Presbyterian Church is so very proud of all the graduates this year for their hard work and dedication to their studies! Congratulations on your achievements and may God bless all of your future endeavors!

Emma Anthony (Judie Bailey's granddaughter) - graduated Cum Laude from Southern Illinois University, majoring in Sports Administration, where she was also in the NCAA tournament as a member of their softball team; she is beginning her work life as an Event Coordinator at Nate Benderson Park in Sarasota, FL.

Lucas Anthony (Judie Bailey's grandson) - graduated from Lakewood Ranch High School in Florida; he plans to major in Business at Embry Riddle Aeronautical University while continuing to build on his successes playing lacrosse.

Gage Bodell (Colleen Gibson's foster son) - graduated from Orchard Park High School and is a member of the National Honors Technical Society; he'll begin his higher education at Erie Community College while considering four-year schools such as Cornell and RIT.

Michael Dehn (Lyn Dehn's grandson) - graduated from Williamsville South High School.

Connor Gilmartin (Colleen Gibson's grandson) - graduated from Williamsville East High School.

Zoe Gilmartin (Colleen Gibson's granddaughter) - graduated from UB with a degree in Sociology; she plans to travel to Spain before continuing her formal education.

Ashley Kelley (Lyn Dehn's granddaughter) - graduated from Mill Middle School and is a member of the Williamsville South Dance Line; she will begin at Williamsville South High School in the fall.

Paige Timby (Judie Bailey's granddaughter) - graduated from SUNY Brockport with a Bachelor's degree in Sociology (and coursework in Education). She is very excited about the new job she'll be starting this month as a Behavior Technician for Autism Learning Partners, which combines her education with her experience as a camp counselor for Autistic and ADHD children.
