FROM THE PRESIDENT

According to my calendar, Spring is scheduled to arrive in a few weeks. It feels like we have been in Winter for three years, not just three months. I hope you have all stayed warm, and maybe even completed a basket or two during this weather!

In addition to looking forward to warmer, non-snowy weather, we have some nice things to look forward to in our guild. We have Pam Wilson teaching a pretty basket tote on March 21. The retreat committee is busy planning the guild's April retreat in Hanover. May's weave will have Anne Bowers teaching the rib basket, which was rescheduled from November. June will be our picnic/dye party---I can imagine I may be complaining about the heat by then!

The Odyssey committee will soon jury baskets for this September's Weaving Odyssey. Lynne is working on finalizing programs for the rest of the year.

As always, please contact any one of the Board members if you have questions or concerns!

APRIL RETREAT

The retreat information was emailed or mailed to all members. If you have any questions about the Retreat, please email Anne Kelly at basketsbyanne@yahoo.com.

You may want to bring your lunch, or purchase lunch from Giant grocery store's food court. The Community Center's rooms are on the second floor. As you enter Giant, proceed to the left side of the building. An elevator is available beside the stairway.

From The President

Many guild members have been super busy the past couple of months. The retreat committee pulled off another spectacular retreat! Pam Talsky is an amazing instructor—we all were in awe of the time she had spent just preparing the cedar for us to weave. It all starts with a trip to Alaska...and many labor intensive hours harvesting and preparing the cedar. Folks left with amazing and unique baskets!

The Odyssey committee juried baskets in March, and worked hard to get the information on the website before the May 1st registration opening. So many basket classes to choose from! I hope you all have sent in your Odyssey registrations! Thanks again to the Odyssey committee as they continue to work toward another amazing convention!

The By-Laws committee, headed by Jude Gallaher, has been hard at work to update the by-laws, which we hope to present to the guild members early this summer. Please make sure you check out the recommendations and vote.

Lynne has been working hard to set up programs for the guild. Remember to email Jean Foutz if you are attending the guild dye party on June 7. If you have never been to our dye party and picnic, why not try it out this year!

Special thanks to Patti Wilder DeMatteo who is our new newsletter editor!

Have a great summer and hope to see you at one of the guild meetings!

From the President--Donna Kumpf

In a little over two weeks, the 15th Weaving Odyssey will take place in Gettysburg. We have over 80 weavers attending. Looking forward to seeing many of you there!

Since our last newsletter, guild folks have been busy! The updated by-laws were sent out and unanimously approved by the membership. We had a wonderful dye party and picnic in June, a fun mini gourd/waxed linen weave in July and adorable woven bracelets in August.

The guild board held a meeting by conference call (saving lots of gas money, as our guild is so spread out!). If you would like to see the Board meeting minutes, please email me! Some of the highlights:

-- The decision was made to set the CPBWG dues for 2016 at $20.

-- A CPBWG Handbook & Policy Manual is in its early stages of being written. Please let us know if you would like to help with this during the next year.

--As specified in the by-laws, "The Executive Committee shall present a single slate of Officers and Directors to be elected at the Annual Meeting in September."

Here is the recommended slate of Officers and Directors for 2016/2017.

President's Message-Donna Kumpf

Another busy year with the guild is nearing the end. We had eight guild weaves, one successful retreat with Pam Talsky, a fun dye party/picnic, and of course, the 15th Weaving Odyssey! Lots of planning, organizing, talking and work was done behind the scenes. I want to thank the Board members for all of their help with projects throughout the year. I also want to thank the Retreat and Odyssey committees for outstanding programs. Thanks to the By-laws committee for researching and improving our by-laws.

At the Annual meeting in September, held during the Weaving Odyssey, members approved the following board officers/directors for a two year term (2016/2017):

Marilyn Julius, President

Donna Kumpf, VP-Programs

Lynne Laughman, Secretary

Becci Melcher, Treasurer

Patricia Wilder DeMatteo, Member at Large-Communications

Linda Moore, Member at Large-Special Events

Deb Roberson, Member at Large-Membership / Audit

The guild is working on a Handbook to consolidate all that we do: thanks to Jude Gallaher for heading this process!

Remember that each guild member is welcome to help out in any guild meeting; we always need help with preparation and clean up after guild meetings, ideas for programs, volunteers needed during the Weaving Odyssey (taking care of the hospitality room, helping with raffle, etc.) Just let anyone on the Board know and we can find something for you to do!

Enjoy your holidays and hope to see you all in January!
