

TRAVEL WARNING FOR QUINTANA ROO: VICARIOUS VIOLENCE

About

- * Vicarious violence is form of gender violence against women
- * Is the most cruel violence in which the father uses “the children to continue to harm the woman” when he can no longer do so directly
- * Vicaria (which comes from Latin 'vicarius') means: what does he have the times, power and faculties of another person or replaces him. In this violence, the main victim is the mother, the man uses sons and daughters by substitution to cause what many mothers refer to as a “living death”.

INTERNATIONAL CASES

- * There are several cases in Quintana Roo, México where women have been suffering that type of violence but their embassys have not being able to help them because of the corruption and institutional violence of the mexican authorities.

INSTITUTIONAL VIOLENCE

- * Is a extreme violence against women, generated by prosecutors, judges and magistrates that corrupt the justice and have a child custody trafficking network where the agressors can ‘buy’ child custody for $80,000 MXN, as it has happend with the judge Martin Alberto Zetina Zavala in Playa del Carmen; or to erase their felony record with the Magistrate Carlos Alejandro Lima Carvajal, the protector of Succar Kuri, the main pedophile network case in México.
