TAM A GRAM

Tam A Gram is an accountant by day and a comedian by night with more personalities than pairs of shoes. Based in Huntsville, AL, she has been performing around the south for 10+ years as a comedian and emcee for corporate entertainment. She won the crown of “2022’s Funniest Accountant in the South” competition at the Coca Cola Roxy in November 2022. She produces a quarterly show called When in Rome Comedy in Rome, GA and Americans United for Laughter that pops up around the US sporadically. Tam is known for producing charity shows to raise money and supplies for the homeless and local community causes.

Tam A Gram loves writing unique jokes for corporate events and has a lot to say about accounting, finance and taxes. She also really enjoys roasting people, and even ghost writes roast sets and rap battle sets for other comedians.

Tam is a true renaissance woman and dabbles in many forms of art and entertainment. She hosts a news talk radio show every Saturday on WVNN (92.5 FM 770 AM local Huntsville stations) from 6 - 8 pm CST. Besides comedy and radio, she writes satirical articles, makes YouTube videos, writes poetry and records music. She is a self-proclaimed “Tax Rapper” specializing in rapping about the IRS.

Tam enjoys traveling and performing at shows wherever she goes. Check her out when she comes to your city! Visit tamagram.com for more info.
