

Masako Ikeda

1924 - 1943

Masako Ikeda was born to Issei parents who had emigrated from Hiroshima, Japan. She had five siblings: Toshio, Minoru, Satoru, Shiro, and Yoshiko.

Masako's mother, Kikune, passed away before WWII. Her older brother, Satoru, enlisted in the army and was serving in the 522nd Artillery Battalion. The rest of the family went to Topaz.

Masako died on July 11, 1943 just months after she had served as the chairman of the "Igloo Crawl Inn" carnival committee. She was 19 years old.

CITY-WIDE FUN CARNIVAL TO BE OPENED TOMORROW

For the first time since the former Tanforan Assembly Center days a carnival will be sponsored by the recreation department for the amusement of the entire public. Centered at Rec 10, the festival, titled "Igloo Crawl Inn," will start off Saturday at 2:30 PM and continue through Sunday.

In addition to regular game prizes, grand prizes will be awarded to the holders of lucky tickets, according to Miss Masako Ikeda, chairman of the carnival committee.

Hot-dogs and French fried potatoes will be sold.

Some of the names of the novel and elaborately decorated concessions are: "Have You Seen Aurora?," "Alaskan Shuffle," "Tip the Kayak," "Walrus Golf," "Glacier Slide" and "Spear 'Em."

TOPAZ TIMES

T R I — W E E K L Y

DEATH TAKES MASAKO IKEDA

Masako Ikeda, 19, oldest daughter of Koruku Ikeda, 16-2-B, passed away last Sunday morning at the hospital.

She is survived by her father, 4 brothers; Toshio, Minoru, Tom and Satoru, and a sister, Yoshiko.