

Tane Matsui

1875 - 1943

Tane Matsui (née Kuruma) and her husband Takejiro, emigrated from Yamaguchi, Japan in 1900. They had their first child, Tomi, in Hawai`i in 1903. Their second child, Masaji, was born in San Francisco.

Takejiro died in November 1941, weeks before Pearl Harbor was bombed.

Tane passed away on December 13, 1943. She was survived by her two children and two grandchildren. A third grandchild was born two months after Tane died.

TOPAZ TIMES

T R I - W E E K L Y

MRS. MATSUI DIES

Mrs. Taro Matsui, 88, of 10-4-E passed away at the center hospital yesterday morning.

A former San Francisco resident, Mrs. Matsui is survived by two sons, Edward, and Insait, and his wife, Grace.