Country of venue: Kyrgyzstan

Kyrgyzstan or the Kyrgyz Republic is a landlocked country in Central Asia. Kyrgyzstan is bordered by Kazakhstan to the north, Uzbekistan to the west, Tajikistan to the south, and the People's Republic of China to the east.

Its capital and largest city is Bishkek.

Ethnic Kyrgyz make up the majority of the country's 7 million people, followed by significant minorities of Uzbeks and Russians.

The Kyrgyz language is closely related to other Turkic languages.

Kyrgyzstan is divided into seven regions (Kyrgyz: облустар). The regions are subdivided into 44 districts (Kyrgyz: аймактар, aymagtar;).

The districts are further subdivided into rural districts at the lowest level of administration, which include all rural settlements (aýyl $\ddot{o}km\ddot{o}t\ddot{u}$) and villages without an associated municipal government.

The cities of Bishkek and Osh have status "state importance" and do not belong to any region.

One of the most popular tourist destination points in Kyrgyzstan is the lake Issyk-Kul. Numerous hotels, resorts and boarding houses are located along its northern shore. The most popular beach zones are in the city of Cholpon-Ata and the settlements nearby, such as Kara-Oi (Dolinka), Bosteri and Korumdy.

However, due to the economic and political instability in the region, the number has declined in recent years.

City of venue: Bishkek

Bishkek (Kyrgyz: Бишкек), IPA: [biʃˈkek]), formerly Pishpek and Frunze, is the capital and largest city of Kyrgyzstan. Bishkek is also the administrative centre of the Chüy Region. The region surrounds the city, although the city itself is not part of the region but rather a region-level unit of Kyrgyzstan.

Bishkek is situated near the Kazakhstan–Kyrgyzstan border. Its population was 1,074,075 in 2021.

Bishkek residents divide the city into up and down. The upper part (south) is closest to the mountains, the lower (north) — to the border with Kazakhstan. The upper part of the city is considered cleaner in terms of ecology. But almost all "life" is concentrated at the bottom. It is there that the main attractions, markets and much more are located. How to determine the top and bottom? It's very simple: the top is where the mountains are.

Bishkek is a square city. In it you will find almost no winding streets. That is why it is almost impossible to get lost here. Residents of the city are guided by the intersections of streets. For example, they rarely make appointments just in a restaurant, but necessarily add that it is located at the intersection of Chui / Isanova or Togolok Moldo/Kievskaya.

Bishkek is a very green city. There are many parks, boulevards and squares here. Not far from the capital are the green mountains and the Ala-Archa National Park.

There are many beautiful places in Bishkek. Kyrgyzstan has some of the best places in Bishkek. We collected data on the top 10 places to visit in Bishkek. There are many famous places in Bishkek and some of them are beautiful places in Bishkek. People from all over Kyrgyzstan love these Bishkek beautiful places which are also Bishkek famous places.
