Engineering, Management, & Training

Who Are We? (Background)

We were founded in 1993 by an Engineer, turned business owner, turned entrepreneur in search of independence and the American dream. Key to focus was, and continues to be, to hold to our values to improve those around us through understanding, education, effort, and improvement. We have been successful with thousands of individuals and many organizations. We tend to be “fixers”.

Team members are successful, confident, decisive, highly-skilled, highly-educated, and values-centered. We continue to advance by acquiring skills and growth through education, certification, consulting, mentoring, and teaching.

What Can We Do? (Capabilities)

Our goal is always to provide value by offering the total package which encompasses detailed technical capability, leadership prowess, analytical skills, and communication expertise. This allows for the coerced movement of organizations, programs, and individuals too timely, cost-effective success.
