

SYC Rules

We all want to enjoy the week and experience God at SYC. Certain things can distract from this. Here are some rules for youth and leaders to follow so everyone will enjoy the week:

1. Keep track of your belongings. Mark your name on everything. Leave valuables with your leader (or at home).
2. Wear appropriate clothes. T-shirts with suggestive logos or art work are not appropriate, and you will be asked to change.
3. Pack carefully. The focus of the week is on God, and electronic toys can distract from this. No portable gaming devices, laptops, etc. If you bring them for the trip, leave them with your church group leader after you arrive. Your leader will return your items for the trip home.
4. Cell phones may be used during meals and free times. They are not to be used during organized activities such as worship, bible study, track times or rec. Distracting and/or inappropriate use of phones during these activities will result in it being taken away and returned at the end of camp. SYC is not responsible for any lost or damaged phones.
5. No tobacco products, alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs are permitted on the premises. If you are caught with any alcohol or drugs, you will be sent home immediately at your expense. Random checks may occur.
6. Once you have arrived at camp, you are not allowed to leave campus until camp is over. If there is a very special circumstance, youth may leave with a leader and with the permission of the director.
7. We need to respect the camp and each other by keeping the camp clean. Clean-up as you go throughout the week. Everyone is responsible for doing their part.
8. Attendance is mandatory for all activities. Being on time is really important. If illness prevents you from participating in some activity, you must inform your church group leader.
9. Lights out is strictly enforced to make sure we all get the rest we need to enjoy SYC.
10. At all times, girls stay out of guys rooms, and guys out of girls rooms.

These expectations are in place to facilitate the best week possible at youth camp. If at any time these expectations are not met, it is up to the discretion of your church group leader and the SYC team to impose consequences.
