1. Let's welcome Josh as one of the newest members of management. He will primarily be over the kitchen management, however when myself or Steve is not available, he oversees all areas. If you have a concern, please address the manager on duty.
2. Current eggs we have- 1200.
3. As we move into May, Let's start thinking about Mother's Day.

4. Shirts are now for sale. If people are interested in larger sizes, I plan to order more soon if I have enough of an interest.
5. Renee's income and events.
6. We need a definite answer on who wants to move meetings to a joined meeting, so we can determine how food goes.
