REMEMBERING THOSE LESS FORTUNATE

EDSO can be proud of its history of supporting local charities. At every Holiday Party we have really loosened our purse strings to help out select charities. We won't let this year's cancelled Holiday Party deter or demotivate us from giving generously to those organizations who help make peoples' lives better. And there are many of those organizations locally and nationally who need our help. Listed below are the three, worthy, local organizations that EDSO has supported in the recent past and a brief description of what they do. You can send them a check or donate online. Let's not forget them.
