

EDITORIAL

This edition of the Prince Hall Masonic Journal is dedicated to the newly elected and appointed officers of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, State of Illinois and Its Jurisdiction and Grand Concordant Bodies. Freemasonry is a progressive science and it is important that the Grand Lodge and Concordant Bodies work to progress with each new generation of officers. If we do not move forward, we will move backwards. Stagnation is not progress. It is akin to decline. This is the case especially if one is in a race. Just keeping pace is simply not enough. In order to win the race, one must run a bit faster, push a little more harder and outwork the competition. This type of effort will push our organizations to higher levels and ensure that our efforts are successful. As such, keep on pushing for greater days.

- "Peace be unto the ashes of those who were listed in the last edition and to those who were not noted. A lot of high profile brothers moved on to a better place."
- "The article on the spread of clandestine Masonry put something on my mind. It was right on point. Maybe a few Lodges can pool together and buy property like they did in East St. Louis and other places. This should create a stronger presence."
- "Congrats on 10 years Brother Andrews. Not sure who served longer between you, Abrams and Carthan. Time flies when you are having fun I guess. Keep up the good work. You are the truth."
- "Nice effort by John Jones Lodge. It should be an annual effort or a new annual service on Memorial Day to visit the sites of all of our deceased Past Grand Masters and clean them. Do we know where they all are located? There are some who do not have stones. I would be wiling to contribute to any effort that would get this done for them."
- "As a sister, what would make me subscribe to the Journal? I see a great deal of information on the brothers but I don't see enough news on the female rites."
- "I see you got one advertiser. It was good to see that the company was not from Illinois. Looks like the message got out but you need to put a stronger notice out to get more advertisers."
- "Show me what Masons do outside of the holiday season. Need to see more of your charity work."

WE EXPEDITE MASONIC TIME! WHY?

By P.M. John Brown, #59

I will attempt to talk on saving time during our Masonic meetings, and I'll be finished in a minute. Now, what is wrong with that statement? ANSWER: I'm talking about saving time, even though I've not started.

Today, too often, the same statement is made and has no place in our Masonic meetings. The basic teachings of Freemasonry is learning from someone wiser and listening with patience. Remember in the 1st Degree, "Let him wait with patience...". Patience has always been a part of our Masonic ritual and history. This lesson we must always remember!

Oh, how often we hear, "in order to expedite time, I'll do this or that." Why are we allowing this to happen? Too many times we worry about the scores of baseball, football, basketball and hockey teams. We let this concern interfere with our oath to give good and whole instructions to those waiting to learn. The Grand Lodge gives to us for learning:

- Schools of Instruction
- Deputies to assist us
- Books/By-Laws/Constitutions

Therefore we have tremendous sources of information to convey to those behind us. If you don't have time for the newly raised member, why in the world should we expect him to understand when we show no patience ourselves!

Maybe, we should stop and think, are we really saving time and for what reason?

What is important is that we communicate the many and various benefits that carry the essence of our ritual in a way that reaches our newly raised brethren at their level. We must really take the time to make sure that our candidates truly understand the Masonic principles being taught. We must convey our lessons, our history, our legacy, symbols and our heritage in a way that really touches the minds and emotions of our brethren in the here and now.

Maybe we need a well developed, carefully formed, Masonic education course, making certain that it relates to our males of today. If we really want our newly raised members to learn and understand the nature of Freemasonry, we must really develop and incorporate alternative teaching techniques.

Are the instructions informing the brothers about the various links we can claim to the past? Before we sound the gavel for the night, have we really answered some of the many questions or have we left the new member standing alone in the darkness? Can he go home and tell his friends all about the organization he has just joined?

Are we not teaching our new brother the many historic and interesting facts about who we are and how we came to be called Prince Hall Masons? Why are there masons that are call AF&AM and F&AM? Why don't we, as black men and women, meet with the white men and women of masonry? What's the difference? When did it first start and will it ever end as two different masonries?

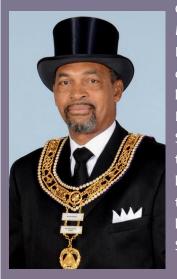

The newly raised brother should be able to go home and explain to his wife or family where his dues and assessments are going. Someone should explain to the brother about the other meetings required to advance in degrees and masonry. Can we stop right now using the phrase "to save time we'll do this or that?" We need to stop and think about those of the past that took their time to educate us in the ways of Freemasonry and patience.

Well, I hear my wife blowing the horn now, and we need to close. We will close in SHORT FORM brothers.

Good Nite!

PGM DRISKELL SELECTED NEW AF&AM HONORARY PGM

Congratulations to Past Grand Master Millard V. Driskell, 44th Grand Master of Illinois Prince Hall Masons on receiving the rank of Honorary Past Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, State of Illinois. Any Master Mason in Good Standing in the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Illinois can now receive free care at the Illinois Masonic Hospital. Joint ventures in charitable endeavors have also been a staple of the bonds formed under his leadership. She also served as the Community Organizer/Executive Director of the Joliet Area Church Organized Body (JACOB) in Joliet from 2005 to 2010. A graduate of the University of Miami, she received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing in 1970.

Teresa Haley (Springfield)

The Grand Lodge also named Ms. Teresa D. Haley as a "Citizen of the Year" in recognition of her efforts as the President of the Springfield Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

Ms. Haley is a prime example of an and beautiful African American woman who puts her skills to work for the benefit of others. A long time officer and leader of the Springfield Branch of the NAACP, her efforts in creating educational opportunities for African American youth are as extensive as her contributions to her local community. Both efforts continue to extend to greater heights and serve as the reasons why the local branch is renown.

Ms. Haley has also been celebrated by the national organization. It is clear that she has superior leadership skills and a mind that is akin to the greatest thinkers in our day and age. Her skillset and her efforts appear to serve as the basis for her latest accomplishment—NAACP President for the State of Illinois. Isn't it fitting that the State President reside in the location where the riot which served as the catalyst for the formation of the organization took place.

Congratulations!

The Illinois Prince Hall Masonic Family participated in full force during the 2015 Bud Biliken Parade to support the educators and the youth in their efforts to return back to school. Participation from all male and female Masonic Houses were at a high level this year. Representatives from all concordant bodies were present on the float donated by Brother Lafayette Gatling and marching among the crowd. A grand number of brothers and sisters marched the parade route following behind the float displaying a strong presence for the Illinois Prince Hall Masonic Family. Among the groups that participated, the Shriners Mini-Car Unit has returned as a fan favorite.

This year, more than one hundred brothers and sisters from across the state served as Parade Marshalls. This was a new addition by the Illinois Prince Hall Masonic Family for the parade that was negotiated by Past Grand Master Millard V. Driskell. The Marshalls were stationed at various places along the route and leveraged to help maintain order and guide participants along. With their assistance, no incidents occurred at the parade this year.

Following the parade, a grand highlight for the afternoon was the block party that was held at the Grand Lodge Masonic Temple. Food and fun were enjoyed by the guests and the youth. In addition, educational supplies were donated to supplement to supplies collected at the parade. Under the leadership of Deputy Grand Master Aubrey Barlow and Brother Chris Calhoun, the block party was a grand time.

Our new Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother Dwayne Smith certainly enjoyed himself at this year's parade. The objective of the parade in preparing the youth to gear up for returning back to schools aligns with his goals for the upcoming year. The parade not only served as a kick off for the youth but also as a beckoning call for Prince Hall Masons to become more active in the community and youth affairs. As such, the Prince Hall Benevolent Fund has instituted Mentorship and Tutoring Programs across the state. With these efforts as a start, the brothers and sisters are well on their way to improving the state of affairs in Illinois communities. Keep up the good work!

MASTERS DEGREE FOR EAGLE SCOUT MOM

Congratulations to Sister Detria Matthews on receiving her Masters Degree in Social Work this Fall. Her accomplishment shows just how much education and achievement means to her and her family.

KEYSTONE GOES BACK TO SCHOOL

On August 21, 2015 Keystone Lodge #15 supported one of its own by participating in Alderman At-Large Bro. Richard C. Irvin's annual Back to School Fair. Bro. Irvin is a long-standing member of Keystone #15, but more importantly, is a staunch civil adherent of every Aurorian. As a result, the community came out in force to enjoy a fun-filled event assisting children of all ages prepare to go back to school!

Free backpacks filled with school supplies were given away to assist area youth begin the school year in grand fashion. Specifically, Keystone #15 was instrumental in helping to provide food, drinks, raffle, entertainment, games and prizes all free of charge to everyone who came out to the Greene Field Community Park location.

Despite a recent downward trend in dropout rates, Aurora community schools still maintain graduation rates at a meager 45.4%. One can point to a myriad of influences that may be responsible for the disparaging data, but it is crucial to genuinely conceive that the lack of educational achievement is reversible. Through mentorship, behavior modeling and community support, we at Keystone #15 believe that the future of our youth and therefore, of society as a whole lies in a sound foundational education in and out of the classroom. We wholeheartedly support Most Worshipful Brother Dwayne A. Smith..."As the oldest African American Fraternity that has a presence in very urban area in the state, we must get involved and be the catalyst for change."

WESTERN STAR & LAGRANGE COMMUNITY PUT BEST FEET FORWARD FOR CHARITY

Western Star Lodge #87, in conjunction with members of the Community hosted its First Annual Charity Walkathon on Saturday, September 12th. Participants walked 5 Kilometers in the name of charity to raise money for several local charities. Western Star Lodge #87 enjoys a rich tradition of charitable work in the La Grange community. ### KEYSTONE TAKES A HIKE

Located 2 miles west of Downtown Aurora, Hesed House is the second largest homeless shelter in the State of Illinois. Almost one thousand individuals (including 188 children) are served each year through Hesed House's housing programs with the help of a core professional staff, social welfare agencies and 6,000 volunteers. The program's primary goal is to assist 16 to 17 individuals out of homelessness each week.

On Saturday, October 3, 2015, Hesed House held its 11th annual "Hike for Hesed" to raise funds for the Hesed Employment And Training (HEAT) Program which equips individuals with tools necessary to regain self-sufficiency and independence! The route to downtown Aurora follows the journey that many homeless individuals staying at Hesed House take daily on foot.

In pursuit of Keystone Lodge #15's mandate to serve the city of Aurora and its surrounding communities, the Lodge partnered with the shelter as a Hike for Hesed fundraising team. The Brothers completed the hike along with over 250 other participants in support of the worthy cause.

Although the virtue of charity is commonly observed as on outward expression, one cannot deny its internal genesis. Charity begins in a spiritual, philosophical and esoteric sense. Specifically, the phenomenon manifests as an outward expression of a holistic transition. Genuine charity begins with allowing oneself to be changed and in turn, reflects the first steps from rough to smooth.

Prince Hall Masons throughout the state of Illinois participate in a wide and varied amount of charitable activity. Our performances benefit our fellow man toward tangible and functional ends. Through these acts however, we must bear in mind that masonic charity assists in living the creed of "making good men better".

PM WILLIS CREATES NEW KSU GRAD FUND

The LARCP Department is excited to announce a new scholarship to provide financial assistance to Minority Graduate Students in Regional and Community Planning, endowed by Ray Willis. This is the RCP Program's first endowed Scholarship Fund in its 50 year history and will support African American, Native American and Hispanic Graduate Students.

Ray Willis is a 1968 and 1971 graduate of Kansas State University. As an undergraduate, he was a basketball "stand-out" on Fred "Tex" Winter's 1968 Big Eight Conference Championship team. Willis currently serves as the Director of Community Planning and Development for Chicago's U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development where he has made significant contributions as planner, innovator and manager. He oversees one of the Department's largest portfolios of community development programs, administering an annual budget in excess of $1 billion.

Willis was inspired to create the Scholarship Fund during his return to campus in April of 2014 as the APDesign Alumni Fellow of the Year. He stated that he "was disappointed to learn how few African American and Hispanic students were enrolled in the Planning program." "When I left the RCP Department in 1973 there were as many as 10 to 12 Minority Graduate Students enrolled in the RCP Program, albeit the vast majority were supported by the HUD funded Minority Work-Study Program."

Instrumental in developing the HUD funded Minority Work Study Program at KSU in 1971 as part of his Masters Project, Willis was its first Director. He is hopeful that the Ray Willis Regional and Community Planning Scholarship Fund will act as a catalyst for the College to resume outreach and recruitment efforts to African American, Hispanic, and American Indian Graduate Students. His ultimate goal is to increase the number of minority individuals in the urban planning profession.

MY JOURNEY THROUGH PROSTATE CANCER

Hello, my name is Tony D. Stafford and I'd like to talk to you about Prostate Cancer, the silent killer of men.

First let me say that I am not a doctor. I am simply one of the millions of men who had or have Prostate Cancer. Men talk to doctors who advise them logically about something that they are schooled in but many doctors have never experienced cancer for themselves. I have had my prostate removed because of Prostate Cancer so I present a perspective from one who has dealt with the challenges and continues to deal with them.

The word cancer is a scary word. So, naturally, when you are told that you have cancer, it scares you. After the initial shock comes the reality and the decisions on what to do next. Here is some advice. Get a second opinion to help you determine what the best method is for you going forward. Also, get educated. Here are some questions you can ask:

- What is the prostate? PSA?
- What is its function? Can you live without it?
- What is the life expectancy of a man with Prostate Cancer?
- How does it affect your relationships?

Well, let's talk about it. Prostate Specific Antigen (PSA) is a test or a reading that gives off numbers that can let you know if you have a high risk of cancer or if it is possible that you may have cancer. It is said that all can be told by a blood test. Well, that is not proven to be true. A digital rectal exam is an accurate test. There are readings according to age that let you know if your readings are high. If they go up and down it is probably not cancerous yet. If it continues to go up then you will probably be asked to take a bio which will tell you if you have cancer. The prostate is located right below the bladder. Every man has one and with age everyone is going to become enlarged.

How do you make a decision once you have been told you have cancer? Well, to quote an old phrase, "different strokes for different folks." Age plays a major factor. Over 75, doctors don't recommend surgery because you may die of something else anyway. It also depends on what kind of neuro doctor you see. If you have a hammer, everything looks like a nail. A surgeon will say "surgery", a doctor that does radiation will say "radiation", etc. It is a decision you should talk to your family about and be comfortable with especially if it runs in your family as well as people who have been through it. Constant urination is a sign of an enlarged prostate but not necessarily cancerous though. Living with prostate cancer, the life expectancy is eight (8) years. Talk to friends.

There is not enough room in this article to fully explain about this disease. When I hear about a man with this disease or a brother, I get in touch with them, try to walk them through my journey and be with them while they are going through their journey as Brother Tecumseh Henry and Brother Frank Gillie of Plumbline Lodge #116 did with me. I was surprised at how much that helped me with my decision as well as my surgery and recovery. Going to the doctor is so important because this disease often gives no indication that there is something wrong. Other conditions can occur from the surgery. But you live and your life dysfunctions are not completely over.

So brothers please go have your PSA test. Don't wait until you are 50. If it runs in your family you should get tested by 40. Sisters talk to your husbands and get them to the doctor. Let's not wait until it is too late. God bless and stay well.

HEALTHY BONE CARE

In my research, I, found that Osteoporosis affects men as well as women. Therefore, men do not make the mistake and put yourself at risk of broken bones. According to the Director of Geriatric Education at North Shore-LIJ Health System in New Hyde Park, New York, if a man falls and breaks his hip, he's more likely than a woman to have a "major complication" from it or being confined to a wheelchair.

The bone-thinning disease affects up to 2 million aging men, while as many as 13 million men have its precursor, osteopenia, or low bone-mineral density. A medical bone research study showed that men rarely get screened for osteoporosis, which indicates that many doctors also may not be aware of its impact on men. Fortunately, you can do a lot to both prevent and live better with osteoporosis. Here's how:

Share Your History: Tell your doctor if osteoporosis runs in your family or if your father, uncles, or grandfathers had unexplained bone breaks. That is very relevant, as is information about any past fractures that you have had.

Strengthen Your Bones: To help prevent osteoporosis, do weight bearing exercises to build up your bones. Walking is fabulous and so is running, provided you run in the right kind of shoes so you don't jar your bones, your joints, your tendons. Lifting weights is also recommended as long as it is a reasonable amount and not to excessive. Talk to your doctor about the right exercises for you.

Eat Right: Nutrition is a key-stone of prevention. For bone protection, that means calcium and vitamin D, often in supplement form. Men are much less likely than women to take such bone-health boosters. Before popping supplements, though, check with your doctor. Doses need to be individualized. There is no cookie-cutter standard.

Wear Proper Shoes: If you have brittle bones, falls can be disastrous. Before you engage in any kind of activity, such as walking on cobblestones, climbing mountains, running, or whatever it may be, it's imperative that you have the proper footwear to prevent a fall that could result in a fracture. Check your shoes to be sure the soles are still in good shape.

As the old saying goes, "Sticks and stones may break our bones", but "proper care" can never hurt them.

Until next time, be good to your bones, let's keep the original ones.

Masons Welcome Youth Back to School

The first day of school for students in the City of Chicago was Tuesday, September 8, 2015. One of the immediate goals of Grand Master Dwayne A. Smith is to secure the future of the Prince Hall Masonry in Illinois by making our presence a relevant and integral part of our communities. It was with this goal in mind that he asked every able and available member of the Prince Hall Masonic Family come together on that day to support education.

Many members from Lodges, Chapters, Courts and Councils answered the call and met the officers and members of the Grand Lodge and Eureka Grand Chapter at the following schools to welcome and encourage neighborhood youth at the start of the school year:

- Wacker Elementary School at 7:30 a.m.
- Wentworth Elementary School at 8:45 a.m.

Students were greeted with handshakes, smiles and words of encouragement in order to help in making a great impression for the youth on their first day back to school. It was made more special with the attendance and participation of the Morehouse College Alumni Club and other organizations. The hope is that these acts by community organizations will show the youth that there are people who look like them that care for their advancement and are willing to provide support along the way. This will strengthen the bonds of our organization with the communities in which we live and serve.

The closing comments from Grand Master Smith now serve as a clarion call to service. He stated to the crowd that "you should expect to see more efforts like this coming from Illinois Prince Hall Masons." As several Lodges have already adopted schools within cities across the State of Illinois, this call is being met. However, the hope is that this effort will boost the activity within each location and strengthen fraternal relations therein. In doing so, the goal of the Grand Master can be exceeded.

HAROLD WASHINGTON First Black Mayor of Chicago

We're rapidly approaching the month of February—our Black History Month Celebration. This is a very important month in the lives of African Americans all across this globe. Why, because it gives African Americans an opportunity to reflect on the pioneers of our race and the contributions that they have made to society.

The Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Illinois with participation from the Grand Historian Office annually presents a "Black History Month Program". However, as we reflect, we cannot talk about Black History Month without talking about Prince Hall, our "Founding Father", and Dr. Carter Godwin Woodson, "The Father of Black History Month". Prince Hall became the first Black Man to be made a Mason in America on March 6, 1775 in Boston, Massachusetts. It is because of Most Worshipful Brother Prince Hall, labor, dedicated services, and sacrifices, that the Prince Hall Masonic Family, globally exits. Dr. Carter Godwin Woodson, an African American Historian Author, was one of the first scholars to value and study black history. recognized and acted upon the importance of a people having an awareness and knowledge of their contributions to humanity.

As Grand Historian, allow me to give to you an historical insight of Brother Harold Washington, the "First Black Mayor of Chicago". Yes, I, said Brother Harold Washington. Brother Washington is a Prince Hall Mason and was an active member in Harmony Lodge No. 88, Chicago, Illinois. On April 12, 1983, Harold Washington was elected the 51st Mayor of Chicago. Mayor Washington was elected to a second term and served until his death on November 25, 1987. Harold Washington was a lawyer by profession and a life long politician. He rose through the ranks as an alderman, an Illinois State Representative and a U.S. Congressman.

Mr. Washington was born on April 15, 1922 and died on November 25, 1987. He was the son of Roy and Bertha Washington. He was one of three children. He was a life long resident in Chicago's Bronzeville Community. He grew up in Bronzeville, attended Du Sable High School, was an outstanding athletic, and a member of its first graduating class. Du Sable High School was named for Jean Point Baptiste Du Sable, "The Founder of Chicago". Mr. Du Sable, a black man, in 1799, became the first settler in the city of Chicago.

Bronzeville is a neighborhood in the Douglas and Grand Boulevard Community areas located on the South Side of Chicago. The neighborhood is named for Stephen A. Douglas, an Illinois Politician. Mr. Douglas an Illinois Senator was known for his series of seven three-hour public debates that took place in small Illinois towns during the summer of 1858 with a young brash lawyer named Abraham Lincoln who was against slavery. Bronzeville is the historic center for black culture and has been in the city of Chicago since the early 20th Century and the "Great Migration". Between 1910 and 1920, during the peak of the "Great Migration" the population of the area increased dramatically when thousands of Blacks escaped the oppression of the south and immigrated to Chicago in search of industrial jobs. The history on "Bronzeville" and the "Black Migration to Chicago" is a historical news topic within itself. I will devout a future journalistic article to this topic. But, for now, please allow the Grand Historian to return to the historical insight of Harold Washington.

Politics was in Mr. Washington's DNA because his father, Roy was a ward precinct captain, as well as a lawyer and a Methodist minister. In 1942, Mr. Washington was drafted into the U.S. Army. He served in the U.S. Army Air Corps Unit of Engineers. He rose to the rank of First Sergeant. He was discharged from the U.S. Army in 1945. In 1946, he enrolled in Roosevelt College and in 1948, he was elected the third president of the college student council.

In August 1949, Mr. Washington graduated from Roosevelt College with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. Shortly thereafter, he applied and was admitted to study law at the Northwestern University School of Law in Chicago. He received his J.D. Degree in 1952.

Mr. Washington then began his political career. He served in the Illinois House of Representatives from 1965 thru 1976. His years of service in the House of Representatives were focused on becoming an advocate for Black Rights. Mr. Washington served the Illinois Senate from 1976 thru 1980. His main focus work was to pass the 1980's Illinois Human Rights Act prohibiting discrimination based on race, color, national origin, ancestry, age, and disability. Mr. Washington was elected in 1980 to the U.S. House of Representatives of Illinois-1st Congressional District where he served from 1980 thru 1983. His major accomplishments involved advocating for legislation to extend the Voting Rights Act.

In 1983, Mr. Washington ran for Mayor of Chicago. In the February 22, 1983, Democratic primary more than 100,000 new voters registered to vote. Mr. Washington won the Democratic primary with massive majority votes on Chicago's south and west sides and a substantial number of votes from the north side and gold coast. He won 37% of the votes versus 33% for Jane Byrne and 30% for Richard M. Daly. However, Mr. Washington had a greater challenge as he found that his Republican opponent, Bernard Epton, Former State Legislator, was supported by many high ranking Chicago Democrats and their ward organizations. Washington's campaign promise was to reform the Chicago patronage system and the need for jobs in a tight economy.

In the April 12, 1983, mayoral general election, Mr. Washington defeated Mr. Epton by 3.7%, 51.7% to 48.0% to become Mayor of Chicago. Mr. Washington was sworn in as Mayor of Chicago on April 29, 1983 and resigned his congressional seat the following day. During his first term in office as Mayor, he faced many conflicts with the city council. However, with the graces of the Supreme Being, he survived. His accomplishments involved: 1) Creating the city's first Environmental Affairs Department; 2) In 1984, the establishing of the Political Education Project that involved education of politics beyond the Office of the Mayor; 3) Organize political candidates for statewide elections; 3) Supported Hispanic candidates through field operations, voter registration, and election day poll monitoring. Mayor Washington "Political Education Project Records" is an archival collection detailing the organizations work. The archival collections are located in the Harold Washington Library Center, Chicago Public Library Special Collections, 400 South State Street, Chicago, Illinois.

On November 25, 1987, at 11:am, Mayor Washington after falling unconscious in his office was rushed from City Hall to Northwestern Memorial Hospital located in downtown Chicago for emergency care to no avail and was later pronounced dead at 1:36 pm. An autopsy was performed on Mayor Washington and it was concluded that he died from a heart attack.

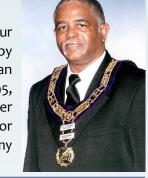

On December 1, 1987, the Reverend B. Herbert Martin officiated Mayor Washington's funeral at Christ Universal Temple located at 119th Street and Ashland Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Mayor Washington was buried in Oak Wood Cemetery located on the South side of Chicago. The Prince Hall Masonic Brethren from Hiram Lodge No. 14, Chicago, Illinois, also performed Masonic funeral services for our dearly departed Brother Mayor Harold Washington.

Several Chicago Institutions have been named or renamed in honor of Mayor Harold Washington. Namely, 1) The re-naming of Chicago Loop College to Harold Washington College; 2) The naming of Harold Washington Elementary School located in Chicago's Chatham neighborhood; 3) The main branch (downtown Chicago) of the Chicago Public Library was named Harold Washington Library. 4) The naming of the Harold Washington Cultural Center located at 47th and South King Drive, Chicago, Illinois; 5) Across the street from the Hampton House Apartments where Mayor Washington lived, a city park was re-named in his honor; and 6) Chicago State University located at 95th Street and South King Drive named a building in his honor.

In conclusion, we applaud Brother Harold Washington, the First Black Mayor of Chicago, for his contribution and his dedicated service to Chicago and to this great Nation. It is because of Mayor Washington's dedicated service that he inspired Barack Obama who began his political career in Chicago as a grass root community organizer working his way through the political ranks. He became a United States Senator. In November 2008, he was elected the 44th President of the United States making him the First Black President of the United States of America. In 2012 President Obama was re-elected President of the United States of America. Again making history. The Grand Historians are continuing to retrace our history through the collections of personal archive information and through the collections of personal archives and interviews with our senior brothers and sisters.

The call "COME ONE, COME ALL" was issued by the UniverSoul Circus on October 11, 2015 and it was answered in a grand way. It was Prince Hall Night on that Sunday evening and who was the guest Ringmaster? None other than our own Grand Master Dwayne Smith. The world renown circus is lauded for its talent which contains acts from various parts of the globe. Not only were their talents on display but also were those of our own brothers and sisters. familiar faces. Some of them thought they actually could dance including the Grand Master, Grand Matron Atwood, Deputy Grand Master Barlow, Senora Benn, Eugene Washington and a host of others. The contest did indeed prove that they all could dance as witnessed by Heroine Fadra Winston Willis who is the new Most Ancient Grand Matron of the Grand Court of Heroines of Jericho and the families of brothers and sisters from across the state. PHAmily fun was a grand time indeed.

On October 3, 2015, North Shore Court #73, Heroines of Jericho, Waukegan, Illinois celebrated 50 years in Love, Union and Friendship at a luncheon held in Waukegan, Illinois at the Lake County CAP Banquet Hall.

The room was beautifully adorned in gold and white. The Heroines were splendid in their red with Brothers in black suits with red accessories and corsages and buttonaires that enhanced their attire. The food was delicious and kudos were extended to the chef for such a splendid meal.

The program included an invocation by Rev. Eugene Robinson, Minister of First Corinthian Baptist Church and a magnificent solo rendered by Mrs. Sondra Thomas-Lyons. Lovely keyboard music was provided by Robert Presley. A memorial was presented for all deceased members of North Shore Court #73 by Heroine Elaine Gaines. The highlight of the program was the presentations made to Brother Delmon Ivey, the only surviving Charter member of North Shore Court #73 who, at age 98, rendered a benediction prayer that was eloquent.

The souvenir book was extremely well prepared thanks to our Most Ancient Matron, Rhona Moore.

The luncheon was attended by the Most Ancient Grand Matron, Heroine Fadra Winston Willis; the Most Worthy Grand Joshua, Companion Eugene L. Washington; and an entourage of Grand Officers including Past Most Ancient Grand Matrons and Past Most Worthy Grand Joshuas. Companion Joe Watt, Past Most Worthy Grand Joshua, who is an honorary member of North Shore Court #73 was among the entourage. Other dignitaries included various members of community organizations.

The affair was enjoyed by all and truly exemplified 50 blessed years in Love, Union and Friendship.

To God be the Glory!!!

John Waller Court # 81 Adopt-A-Family Effort

John Waller Court #81 spreaded holiday cheer to a needy family on Saturday, December 19, 2015. Most Ancient Matron Kiaundra Smith made the special delivery to Grandmother Jametrice Lee (not pictured) and grandchildren DJ, Angel and Adryanna of East Saint Louis, IL. The grandmother is raising her three grandchildren and says she's especially grateful for John Waller Court's generous donations and gift. Happy Holidays!

Mutual Ground is a social service organization located in Aurora, IL that hosts a safe place where people come together to break the cycle of domestic violence and sexual abuse. As one of the oldest and largest associated agencies in the state, it provides comprehensive victim services free of charge with support from grants, civic groups, churches, corporate and individual donors. 2,000 calls for help are answered 24-hours a day, each and every month by trained Crisis Intervention Advocates. The group's governing mission is to provide education, awareness, and life-changing services that empower individuals, families, and communities to end the cycle of domestic and sexual violence.

On Thursday evening December 17th, 2015, Keystone Lodge #15 served Mutual Ground by providing a comprehensive meal to the Mutual Ground women, children and staff. Over 75 participants were treated to pineapple glazed ham, roasted turkey, fried turkey, roasted potatoes, green beans, candied yams, coconut rice, dinner rolls, popcorn, chocolate cake, buttercream cake, cookies and a variety of soft drinks.

Besides the lip smacking and belly rubbing observed throughout the service, a plethora of compliments were given to indicate that the patrons and staff enjoyed a filling and delicious meal.

Most importantly however, the act of noble gentlemen serving women and children went a long way in demonstrating positive behavior that might otherwise be absent from the lives of the consumers. Countless scholarly studies have shown that the involvement of a positive male role model has profound effects on families. The interaction collectively promotes physical well-being, perceptual ability, relationship competency, initiative skills and greater self-control.

Finally, Keystone #15's service to Mutual Ground falls directly in line with and support of the Grand Master's goals of enhancing the image of Prince Hall Masonry in the state of Illinois, making our presence a relevant and integral part of our (local) communities and increasing active participation and volunteerism of our current membership.

Every December, Lodges throughout the State of Illinois choose their leadership for the upcoming year. As is our right as Master Masons, we elect our peers to steer collective efforts in progressive and authentic directions. This act cannot and should not be taken lightly as it has a profound effect upon our futures as a grand Lodge, its subordinates and concordant bodies.

On that accord, we celebrate the transition via public installations primarily held in houses of worship. We swear oaths and take obligations before GOD, brethren, family and friends to perform duties of office geared toward the greater good of mankind. The occasion formally recognizes that though being elevated for a time above their peers, newly elected officers are only elevated by their brothers. These new leaders definitively become highest servants and current custodians of our noble profession.

The 2nd district held its Public a.m., Installation 9 Saturday December 12, 2015 at Mount Zion Baptist Church in Joliet. Brothers of elected and appointed offices were administered their respective oaths of office and given the charges thereof. The entire audience gave witness to the lofty ideals of Freemasonry espoused throughout the program. Undoubtedly however, the event's climactic highlight arrived with the keynote address given by R.W. Brother Aubrey K. Barlow, Deputy Grand Master as introduced by R.W. Brother Tony D. Stafford, Grand Lecturer. The audience welcomed his succinct and incisive remarks with the geniality it deserved.

In conclusion, a repast was held after the ceremony for friends and family to further celebrate the occasion. Newly installed officers were congratulated of their succession and simultaneously reminded to remain steadfast toward their duties.

In as much as the 2nd District celebrated transition, formally recognized the elevation of Master Masons amongst their administered and received oaths of gave witness Freemasonic ideals and enjoyed words of wisdom from R.W. Brother Aubrey K. Barlow, the 2015 2nd District Public Installation Program conclusively provided a unique and precious opportunity for Brothers to share time and space.

"For the man who thinks that because he has been made a Mason, and is called so, and at the same time will willfully neglect to attend his Lodge, he may be assured he will never make a good Mason, nor ought he to be looked upon as a good member of the craft.
