THE STORY OF THE LEGENDARY NOTEBOOK

- The Moleskine notebook is the heir to the legendary notebook used by artists such as Vincent Van Gogh, Pablo Picasso, and Ernest Hemingway. Our classic notebooks are celebrated in pop culture as contemporary icons.
- Today, we remain deeply dedicated to ESG efforts and high ethical standards across our entire production line, and are committed to empowering artists of all backgrounds, demographics, and mediums to find and use their unique voice.
- Our name pays homage to the author Bruce Chatwin, who refers to his favorite notebooks as “Moleskine” in his book, The Songlines, due to their oilskin material and texture. In 1986, the manufacturer of Chatwin’s favorite notebook, a small family-owned company in the French city of Tours, went out of business.
- This further inspired the birth of the Moleskine brand as we know it, which has been headquartered in Milan since 1997.

MARIA SEBREGONDI

Moleskine co-founder and president of Moleskine Foundation

"Every Moleskine notebook is a book yet to be written and a story waiting to be told."

BRUCE CHATWIN

Author, Traveler, Journalist

"To lose a passport was the least of one's worries. To lose a notebook was a catastrophe."
