

The path to HEAVEN is in your hands, discover it now, choose HEAVEN

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. (read it in the Bible, New Testament John 3;16)

Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." (Bible, New Testament John 14;6)

"All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him." (Bible, New Testament Matthew 11;27)

Jesus replied, "Very truly I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God unless they are born again. (Bible, New Testament John 3;3)

he predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ,

Praise to God for a Living Hope

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade. This inheritance is kept in heaven for you, who through faith are shielded by God's power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. In all this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. These have come so that the proven genuineness of your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, for you are receiving the end result of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (read for yourself in the Bible, 1 Peter 1, verse 3-9)

Warning Against Unbelief

Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts

That is why I was angry with that generation;

I said, "Their hearts are always going astray, and they have not known my ways."

So I declared on oath in my anger,

"They shall never enter my rest."

(you can read this for yourself, in the Bible, Hebrews 3 verse 7)

Death

Moreover, the Father judges no one, but has entrusted all judgment to the Son, 23. that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father, who sent him.

"Very truly I tell you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be judged but has crossed over from death to life. Very truly I tell you, a time is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live. For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself. And he has given him authority to judge because he is the Son of Man. "Do not be amazed at this, for a time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice and come out—those who have done what is good will rise to live, and those who have done what is evil will rise to be condemned. (Bible, New Testament John 5;22-29)

"I tell you, my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that can do no more. But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear him who, after your body has been killed, has authority to throw you into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him. (Bible, New Testament - Luke 12;4-5)

Pray today: Jesus please forgive my sins. I believe that Jesus came, died and rose from the dead. Jesus is my salvation. I want to be baptized and become a child of God!

"Whoever acknowledges me before others, I will also acknowledge before my Father in heaven. But whoever disowns me before others, I will disown before my Father in heaven. (Bible, New Testament, Matthew 10;32-33)

Because Jesus will acknowledge you in heaven, you have to acknowledge Jesus before others, make it known you believe in Jesus and be baptized, which then make you a child of God and a brother of Jesus.

Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might break the power of him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil. (Bible, New Testament - Hebrews 2;14)

"I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world." Jesus said. (Bible, New Testament - John 16;33)

Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the worst. But for that very reason I was shown mercy so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display his immense patience as an example for those who would believe in him and receive eternal life. Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen. (Bible, New Testament, Timothy 1;15-17)

The path to HEAVEN is in your hands, discover it now, choose HEAVEN

But we do see Jesus, who was made lower than the angels for a little while, now crowned with glory and honor because he suffered death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. (Bible, New Testament - Hebrews 2;9)

In bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through what he suffered. Both the one who makes people holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters. He says,

"I will declare your name to my brothers and sisters;

in the assembly I will sing your praises."

And again, "I will put my trust in him."

And again he says, "Here am I, and the children God has given me."

Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might break the power of him who holds the power of death-that is, the devil- and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death. For surely it is not angels he helps, but Abraham's descendants. For this reason he had to be made like them, fully human in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted. (Bible, New Testament - Hebrews 2;10-18)

"Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters. (Bible, New Testament - Luke 11)

"Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. (Bible, New Testament, Matthew 10;23,40)
