Secretary's Report – April notes were read. Louis motioned to accept report, second.

Hunter Approved

Treasurers Report – Balances: Checking: $13,328.40, Youth $953.55. Dave motioned to accept report, Chris second. Approved

Old Business:

- Welcomed the new board members Adam Steffel and Hunter Daisy.
 - The board filled out key sign out sheet
 - Discussed getting pictures of Adam and Hunter for on wall in range
- Outdoor range is all set up, thanks to all who helped!
- Discussed range sponsorship program, will provide a “Bucks & Bales” one for all of Matt and Ziggy’s hard work.
- Discussed the annual meeting/banquet and thought it went very well.
 - Discussed maybe having pictures of prizes in email to show how great they are to maybe draw in more youth.
 - Don’t need to order the extra meals next year, was to much food left over.
 - Need to send out thank you cards to businesses that donated prizes
- Need to implement new waiver form on all new members that sign up, will get everyone else at open house.
- 50 new key fobs have been put in box, make sure to use old ones first.
- All 3M donations have been received, $3,000 donated this year to the club. Thanks to all the 3M employees that did this!

New Business:

- Will be participating in 2 parades this year again. Hutch on June 16th and Glencoe on June 22nd. Will need volunteers to help walk and pass out candy and flyers. Shooter bucks will be provided to volunteers.
- The indoor range heat was turned off on May 1st.
- The new bales are not holding up, need to keep looking for new options. Maybe 48" targets on rolling stands?
- Set date for 3D shoot. Will be August 24th and 25th.
- Discussed indoor range teardown for the fair. Will be July 30th at 4PM. Will also clean out above back room, a lot of stuff can be thrown away.
- Did election of Board Officers. Louis Schweim reelected as Treasurer, Zach Dressel reelected as Secretary, Dave Frey reelected as Vice President, and Cal Lee reelected as President.

Open Discussion:
