THE MEMBERSHIP OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS
(1856 MEMBERSHIP ROSTER, CHRONOLOGICAL)

Though First Baptist Church of Jacksonville, IL, was founded in 1841, its first book of minutes, 1841-56, has been lost at least since 1916. The following roster is the oldest one available, taken from the book of minutes that began to be in use in August, 1856. Some information reproduced here was added by church clerks in the years following 1856, such as deaths, dismissals, etc. I have carefully compared this roster for 1856 (plus additions) with several later rosters to ascertain spellings of names, completeness of the list, and disposition of members, leading to some corrections and additions, which, with an occasional comment, are shown in square brackets. Those accustomed to infant baptism should not draw any inferences about the birth date from the date of baptism shown below. Baptist churches do not baptize until individuals make their own competent decision to become a Christian, perhaps around ten to twelve, occasionally slightly earlier, often many years later.

The list is chronological rather than alphabetical; a few entries have been shifted to correct the chronology. The list should be fairly complete to August, 1856, when it was probably copied from the now missing Volume I to the very back of Volume II, and through 1859. Note however some insertions of information in brackets from later rosters or other sources for these earlier dates. Some early members apparently absent from the 1856 list, because they had already departed the membership when the list was transferred to Volume II, have been added.

The following version does not duplicate the format of the original which took up twice as much space and told who was excluded or dropped. The version below saves space and preserves confidentiality, since even 150 years later the public does not need to know which persons were excluded or dropped for moral failure, etc., though we will share this information with descendants if known. Dates for the beginning of their connection to the church are shown, if known. The KEY for codes on accessions to and removals from the roster is as follows:

C = Constitution L = Letter R = Restoration
B = Baptism E = Experience D = Died

The dates of the ending of membership is usually shown, but the only specific type of disposition I will convey is that by death, with a "D," of paramount interest to genealogical research, though the handwriting for "Died" and "Disd (=Dismissed)" was very hard to distinguish in the original.

In return for supplying this information I solicit information about these former members and pastors, especially the charter members.

*All these names were struck through; perhaps they had accidentally been added after an intended cutoff date for use of this particular roster, since they did in fact become members on the date shown. But many more became members in the years marked, too.

THE SECRET OF A GOOD QUARTERLY .. is more than the selection and control of material and equipment: it results from the human factors of interest, experience and skill of the society membership. The secret of a GOOD QUARTERLY can be summed up in three words - - YOU, THE MEMBERSHIP!

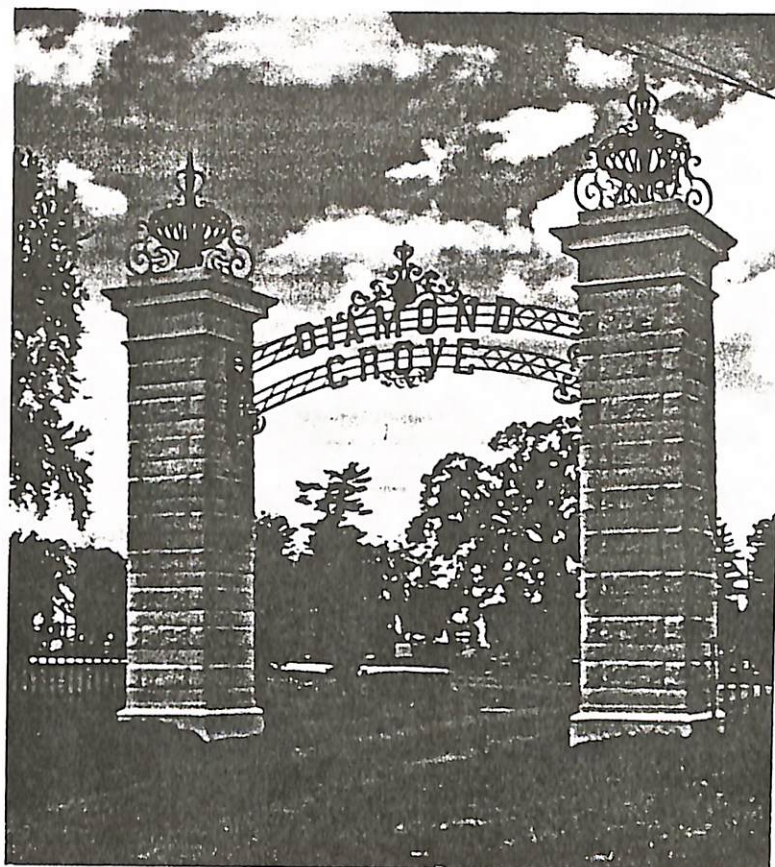

DIAMOND GROVE

Over a century of history unfolds throughout the winding lanes of Diamond Grove, one of Illinois' oldest cemeteries.

Several generations of families from every walk of life can be found within these gates, beginning with the burial site of Isaac Fort Roe, one of the first settlers in Morgan County. His headstone, erected in 1869, today stands as a silent tribute to the concerned attention, surveillance and upkeep that has been maintained throughout the long history of Diamond Grove.

Many other well-known Illinois residents are buried in this cemetery, including three former Governors of the State of Illinois—Richard Yates, Joseph Duncan, and Richard Yates Rowe.

Stately trees remain abundant on the naturally landscaped grounds and well-tended lawns and shrubbery add to the serene beauty in any season.

According to one of our members, there is a booklet printed before this one that contained a picture of his relative, RALPH REYNOLDS and J.S. ANDERSON. He would like a copy of this booklet or a photocopy if the person did not wish to part with the booklet. His copy was destroyed in a flood.
