Junior members, whose parents are not members, receive all publications.. This is our effort to encourage young people to start family history research collections.

Memberships received late in the year will be sent all publications for that year, and their dues will be payable again as of January 1 following.

MEETINGS: Each interested person, member or not, is welcome to attend meetings.

REGULAR MEETINGS - 4th Thursday nights except July, and November.

They may now be held second floor of the Elliot State Bank, or Illinois Power Auditorium. See newspapers for announcements.

Day meetings at the library have been discontinued due to lack of local interest.

LETTERS OF INQUIRY are reviewed at meetings. Names sought and name of person making inquiry is included in news articles pertaining to our Society in local newspapers. This has proved to be a popular feature, and is read widely since our notices are sent to 10 area newspapers.

YOUR OFFICERS AND BOARD MEMBERS APPRECIATE YOUR SUPPORT as indicated by your friendly letters, and membership applications. This is our only way to pay for the ever increasing costs of publishing our JACKSONVILLE IL. GENEAL JOURNAL, especially with the higher postage rates. Our GENEAL JOURNAL contains hundreds of names from Courthouse records, cemeteries, census records, marriage indexes and other materials from the several counties in West Central Illinois. Most of these records have never been published before, nor are available for public use otherwise. We place many of our records in the Jacksonville Public Library, the Illinois State Historical Library, and recently the newly-opened Sangamon Valley Genealogical Collection in Lincoln Library, on 7th Street in Springfield which is open to genealogists at times when others are closed.

IF YOU WISH TO RECEIVE your current Membership Card would you be kind enough to enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope? And, please, make them LONG ones when requesting genealogical materials so that xeroxed materials won't have to be folded so much.

IF YOU ARE AN OUT-OF-STATE RESEARCHER please be informed that many County Clerks in Illinois will require you to have a membership card from some Genealogical Society in Illinois before they will permit you to search indexes of vital records such as birth and marriage. This does not apply to Deeds nor Court records, except that adoption records require a legal reason and possibly a Court Order from a Judge.

Mrs. Florence Hutchison, President-Editor. Miss Lucille V. Crawford, Financial Sec.

To err is human; to forgive is divine. Your Editor is sometimes too human!

No matter how hard we try to be perfect, there is always a gremlin hiding behind the skirts of each guardian angel ready to dart out and strike a wrong letter while the typist isn't looking. Since we have some typing errors in the membership list on pages 24, 25, 26, 27 and 30, in particular, that were not hand-corrected, please note corrections and additional memberships on the inside of the back cover.

Dues are now payable, and if mailed now will insure getting your name on the roster for the March Quarterly in due time.

* * * * * Please notify us as soon as possible when your address changes. *

FROM OUR HOUSE(S) TO YOURS --- Dear Geneal People:

It seems impossible that by the time this December 1978 quarterly reaches your house another year will have passed -- our 6th, as an organized Society. Looking back at the fellowship and excellent attendance at our several yearly meetings, accumulated correspondence, the increasing number of indexes, family files and history books, we can take pride in the accomplishments of the query and service efforts of our many members and friends here and "out there" in many states and several countries.

Looking forward to 1979 we can all expect greater genealogical developments by using the experiences and knowledge gained from past labors. It is like building a house -- by constructing a solid foundation the building can be completed with confidence and competence.

Your Editor is now compiling an INDEX OF INDEXES. As one person said "My word, what is that?" It is time and effort consuming to pull down so many books from a shelf to scan the index for the name of a particular grandpa and/or grandma someone is seeking. So--by typing only the surnames from an index in a book or record and filing by County in the loose-leaf notebook called "Index of Indexes", one can find which book, cemetery reading, marriage or Bible record one needs search for a particular surname.

We hope this gives you an idea for readily locating people from many sources. As you research books, take a sheet of notebook paper, write name, author and other data of book at top of page, (and where it is located), and jot down surnames found in it. As you discover more grandmother's names you can refer to this surname index to see if her family might be in the same book. Another great advantage to copying surnames is that you become familiar with names involved in a certain area or period of time, learn their spellings, and you may unexpectedly find other relatives in allied names. Or maybe you will have some reference to share with other family historians. Let us all strive to help each other more.

Unfortunately, some of our inquirers are still waiting for answers to their relative problems. For this we are sorry, but there just wasn't enough time for all the cumulative research time required, or we had to take time out to produce another quarterly, complete some necessary indexing, or we were away from home for awhile. But a great many persons have been satisfactorily answered, in one way or another. Putting names and addresses of inquirers in our newspaper articles helped some. Several persons have written us such kind letters of gratitude it perked up our flagging spirits at times when we felt so inadequate.

It is a joy when one can pick up a history book and find a biography that applies to an inquiry. Because there are many history books in West Central Illinois researchers may not know about, and our ancestors moved about from county to county, this Quarterly is mainly devoted to indexing some available biographies. Also included is the 1978 membership listing some of the surnames each member is working on. Maybe some of you can find some kith and kin this way. This was a difficult piece of research to pull together, so if we have made errors, or omitted names, please forgive us. Corrections will be welcomed.

Your Editor attended the marvelous North American Vexillological Association meeting referred to as "NAVA 12" at Montgomery Alabama, October 6-9, and was duly elected Corresponding Secretary. The organization is composed of about 250 persons and organizations from Canada, U.S and Mexico who are flag-related, either as hobbyists, historians, manufacturers, wholesale and retail dealers, and many other occupations. If any one is inspired to join this interesting group please write to me for information as to its aims and dues. NAVA 13 will meet in historic Salem, Massachusetts, next October. That will be an exciting trip East.

May your blessings be so many in 1979 that you can truly say, "My cup runneth over. I thank Thee, Lord, for each and every lovely day."

Florence Hutchison, Editor.

Page 1: INDEX: PULLIAM CEMETERY, Macoupin County, Illinois. NE $\frac{1}{4}$ SE $\frac{1}{4}$ Sec. 4 Township 12 North Range 8 West 3rd Principal Meridian. Near site of the former Vancil Temple, a non-denominational Church 1888-1954. Traveling on Route 111 south, out of Waverly, one takes a road leading west about one-half mile south of the Morgan County line. It is about one-fourth mile west. The tall spires of the church no longer guides the seeker to this hallowed spot, unfortunately.

This Cemetery Record Book was compiled by Mrs. Guy W. Martin from sextons records and obituaries. A xerox copy is possessed by the Jacksonville Area Genealogical Society, and Lincoln Library, Springfield, Illinois.

These listings are all in Old Part except S= burial in Skeen's Addition, and A= burial in Allyn's Addition.

Last Sunday probably marked the close of the life of historic old Vancil Temple south of town after that rural church had served the community for more than sixty years. And the final ceremony was appropriate.

A great-great-great grandson of the founder of Vancil Temple was christened. The infant was Craig Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Moffet, one of the latest arrivals of the sixth Vancil generation. Plans will now get underway to sell the old church and move it away, for it has ceased to serve its original purpose due to changing times and modern trends.

Travelers up and down state Route 111 long have noted the tall spire of the New England type edifice, setting a few hundred yards west of the highway. When the autumn leaves have fallen, the spire is particularly notable, even from a long distance, though it rises well above the trees around it.

The church was founded by Edmund C. Vancil, an early settler of North Macoupin county. He urged the idea of a non-denominational edifice, and that is what it was during its useful years. Vancil selected the site and gave a large part of the money needed for its construction.

Vancil, born in 1799, came from southern Ohio to Macoupin county in 1818, the year Illinois was admitted as a state. A hundred years after his birth, in 1899, his great-grandson, Warren Moffet, was born on the original Vancil tract. It is owned now [1954] by Virginia Rinaker Buntin, of California, and is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Cox. He has been a trustee for Vancil Temple for 20 years.

Mrs. Fred N. Herr, a great-grand-daughter of the founder, and who now lives adjacent to the church property, relates interesting history of the famed edifice.

"The church was finished in 1888," she said, "and was dedicated to the 'worship of God and the good of humanity.' An association was formed to govern the use of the building.

"John Gatschell, an old ship's carpenter, who had come from Maine and settled in the community, was the combination architect and builder. The labor was donated. Many modern architects have stopped to admire the beautiful proportions and clean lines of the structure. Artists also have admired it.

"One of the tricky operations of the construction was getting the huge bell into the bell tower. This mellow toned bell is almost four feet in diameter and is said to weigh two tons. Every boy in the community, down through time, at some early period in his life has had the exciting experience of climbing to the tower and ringing the bell in the dead of night, usually on New Year's eve or Halloween. Sixty-six men and women made up the original church membership, of whom only one, Ezekial Watts, of Beardstown, still lives."

A. C. Moffet, grandson of the founder, was the first secretary of the Vancil Temple association. Mrs. L. G. Brown, of Modesto, is the only living grandchild of Edmund Vancil. She remembers having taught Sunday school there when she was a young girl. Ocea Moffet whose son, Everett, resides in Waverly, began his career as a Baptist minister at Vancil Temple. Mrs. James Watts, now 91 years of age, of Waverly, recalls a meeting of thanksgiving at Vancil Temple, after a drouth was broken. Mrs. Herr smiles reminiscently as she recalls, when a young girl, "the crisp organdy dresses and the precise hair bows of the older girls and the melted and poured-in look of the boys in knee pants" on Sundays at Vancil Temple.

For many years, Vancil Temple was used in an inter-denominational way strictly for church services. Then folks began to drift away, as population increased and new churches were built, to denominations of their choosing. For a number of years the old church was used only for an occasional funeral.

The original Vancil, who lived to be 91, headed a widely known family. Representatives of four generations still live in Modesto. They are Mrs. Brown, granddaughter; Mrs. George Staley and Mrs. Hollen Wheeler, great-granddaughters;

Mrs. Virgil Ruff, great-great-granddaughter, and Joe Ruff, great-great-great-grandson.

Living descendants recall that Edmund Vancil had what today would be strange ideas. In the first place, he was both a banker and doctor. Then, he always hid his money behind a limestone section of the fireplace in his home, and when he loaned money, he never required a note or a signature. He figured that if a patron's word was no good, neither was his paper. He also was an enthusiast of silent square dancing, but it had to be quiet, no stomping.

Mrs. Herr recalls a legend that sprang up after the pioneer's death. His spirit was said by some to haunt the Temple at night, and there are still living in the Modesto community some of the older people who, as youngsters, feared to enter the edifice at night, lest the founder be encountered in ghostly form.

With Sunday's christening, the career of family old Vancil Temple ended. Not only will the folks in the neighborhood miss it, but so will travelers, many of whom found cheer in its presence as they passed the highway intersection nearby.

Vandals gradually created deterioration of the building and it was finally destroyed. Another landmark passed into oblivion, but longingly remembered by stories like the above kept in the scrapbook of some kindly soul. We lovingly reprint this story here so that the memory may be kept alive for future generations to recall.

We continue here with the obituaries in the possession of our Society of Pulliam Cemetery. If anyone is interested we could xerox these for their use. They are also on file at Lincoln Library in the Sangamon Valley Genealogical Collection, 3rd Floor, in Springfield.

Someone has said that we should be such "born-again Christians" that if a mosquito bit us he would go away singing "There's Power In The Blood!"

Here is a brief reference to a book that sounds interesting: "Revival Fires" by Cecil Todd. Sorry, no more information.

Robert Louis Webb has written a book Walk About Zion, a History of the Primitive Baptists of Illinois 1796-1976. $2.00. Order from Robert L. Webb, 313 Whitewood, Burlington IOWA 52601. Included is the history of The Apple Creed Association, The Morgan Association and The Concord Association, etc. Here is a portion of "The True Church" quoted from John L. Wince, 16 February 1891:

For centuries the waiting bride,
Has lit her altar fires,
And waited for the morning tide
To light the Eastern spires;
Has longed to see her absent Lord,
Whose love inspired her song;
And leaning on his faithful word,
Has battled with the wrong.

And still she waits while shadows fall
Across the way she treads,
For Christ to break the mortal thrall,
And crown immortal heads.
Oh, gladsome day! so near at hand,
That scatters all the gloom,
That hangs so thick o'er every land,
And o'er the silent tomb.

Because there are many excellent biographies and portraits of local persons in the Chapman publications, this name index is presented for those genealogists who may not be aware of this historical source.

Elizabeth Hardy completed an everyname index on the Morgan County part to which we often refer when receiving family queries.

However, the name index we offer here is the one printed in the front of the Chapman history. Those with * in front of the name indicates a portrait on another page. (The Presidents and Governors are omitted here.)

SCOTT COUNTY MARRIAGES From 1839-1899 - a marriage index with name of bride, groom, license and marriage dates is now available for $15.00, postpaid.

Order from Mrs. E. R. Secrest, whose new address is 34936 West Chicago, Livonia MICH 48150. This valuable index makes this part of Scott County history available for the first time. We owe Edna a great deal of thanks for all the hard work and time she has spent on this project.

The Lucy Ball Notebooks, a spirit duplicated project, is for sale @ $5.00 from Mrs. Eileen Cunningham, Rt. 2, Carrollton ILL 62016. A 50cent donation for postage would be appreciated, I am sure. An index is provided.

Your Editor gave a list of the names involved in a previous issue of our Quarterly. (June 1978.) These were pages in two of Lucy's workbooks found in the bottom of a filing cabinet after all her other works were sent to the Knoxville, Tennessee, Public Library. There are many items especially on the Kirby lineage.

Eileen has also recently finished her publication Lower Illinois Valley Book of White Hall. There are 252 pages, hundreds of pictures, houses, farmsteads, scenes and homes. There is a Chautauqua program, some biogs, poems, schools, and over 1500 names indexed by sections. Send to address above. $6.00 plus 75 cents for postage.

There are still copies for sale of the Scott County Bicentennial Book published by the joint efforts of The Bluffs Times and The Winchester Times. Not indexed. This 8½ x 11 inch book contains a lot of items found in other Scott County publications of former years, especially the large Atlas.

These books are also for sale @ $4.00 from the local offices of The Roodhouse Record and The White Hall Register.

An Index to the 1850 Census of Jersey County has been published by the YAKIMA VALLEY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, P.O. Box 2967, Yakima WASH 98907, 1976. Price $8.00.

From the Surname Index of the Genealogy Society of Southern Illinois, organized March 1973, published in 1977, I note among their "Family Helps" p. 58 that a member has as book entitled DAVIS Families of Greene County, Illinois. As to whether it is for sale or not, I have no idea. Make your inquiry of Lowell F. Jones, 3216 Agnes St., Alton ILL 62002.

Printed in U.S.A. by Taylor Publishing Company, Dallas, Texas.

This popular 1976 book of biographies related to Morgan County, Illinois families has no more copies available any place. It was edited by the late Ernest G. Hildner, and Helen Patterson Hinde. Chester A. Thomason was chairman of this county history project without whose untiring and patient efforts it would not have been published. Many other persons are due much credit for their hard labors, but it is impossible to name all of them here. The indexing was accomplished by members of our Jacksonville Area Genealogical and Historical Society.

From the cards in this index, we are herewith listing the name of person who heads each family history. We can provide the name of the person who wrote the biography in the first place. Please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope with your request. We could xerox a copy of the biog, if you desire, but would appreciate a small donation to help cover cost and time to travel to a xerox machine.

Please note: Some persons may not have a listing of their surnames because we were unable to find any list, they sent, "on the spur of the moment" that we decided to include this vital part of our Society business in this Quarterly. We have searched diligently through several sources. If someone feels "left out" will they please send a letter showing name and address and list of surnames they are working on. Please head the list "SPECIAL NOTE - please include my name and these surnames in your March 1979 Geneal Journal." We will try our best to print them next time.

Your Editor stopped in Nashville Tuesday October 24th and picked up 12 handwritten volumes Dr. Doyle donated to us which includes Jacksonville Census readings for 1850, 1860 and 1870, and some tax records he laboriously copied while working on his dissertation. We need some faithful worker who would type an index from these books. Your Editor cannot get to it for a long time to come because of a backlog of communications and filing.

MEDITATION AT DAY'S END

Does anyone remember that you spoke kindly to him today?

Is anybody happier because you passed his way?

The day is almost over, and its toiling time is through;

Is there anyone to utter now a kindly word of you?

Can you say tonight, in parting with the day that's slipping fast,
That you helped a single brother of the many that you passed?

Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said;

Does the man whose hopes were fading, now with courage look ahead?

Did you waste the day, or lose it? Was it well, or sorely spent?

Did you leave a trail of kindness, or a scar of discontent?

As you close your eyes in slumber, do you think that God will say:

"You have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today."
