Editor: Mrs. Florence Hutchison

In the golden chain of friendship regard me as a link

Your Editor is once again "a school girl" - a graduate History major at Sangamon State University. She is trying to pick up more information on the methods of documenting history, techniques of Oral History, use of the tape recorder and management of transcription data. Perhaps she can, at some time in the future, assist other genealogists so that they can better prepare their family histories. Collecting vital statistics is only the beginning of good family history to leave for our posterity. We must learn to include the narratives and anecdotes of our precious heritage. Each "grandma" and "grandpa" had experiences unique to their personality. These we must strive to preserve. Including their pictures, properly identified, is another important facet of our responsibilities to future generations. If you haven't already, dear reader, please start now on this sideline to courthouse research.

We disliked making this Journal strictly statistical data, but felt that finishing up the Greene County marriages was so important to a great many people. With the limit on our pages we are foregoing editorial comments and historical articles.

We hope that those of you purchasing the 1976 Morgan County History have received your copy by now. We have an index system from which we can tell you who wrote each biography, in case you are interested.

GREENE COUNTY MARRIAGE INDEX: 1 Jan 1850 to 1 Jan 1870

This issue of our Quarterly The Jacksonville (IL) Geneal Journal, Vol. V, #3, September 1977, will again specialize in an extension of the Greene County Marriage Records since these are "hard to come by". It appeared from correspondence received by the Society, that more of our members benefitted from this index than anything previously given.

[For early Madison County marriages, and Greene County marriages 1821-1850 see Vol. V, #2, June 1977 issue of our Quarterly above cited.]

To save space we are listing the surnames of groom and his bride, with year of marriage and page # on our records we xeroxed from the Illinois State Historical Library. We owe our gratitude to recently deceased Lucy Ball, an avid genealogist, who typed these marriages years ago and placed them in the aforesaid Library.

You can secure a copy of the official license from the Greene County Clerk for $3.00 each, as set by State Law. Or you can write to us and we can supply the rest of the information we have, as this sample:

Samuel Painter & Elizabeth Rayns, 1 Jan 1850, by Mathias S. Lin, Co. Judge

[Please note: our "page #" refers to the typed page we have, and not the Record Book in the office of the Greene County Clerk.]

Bryant said, in his Thanatopsis, "Go forth, under the open sky, and list to Nature's teachings."

Hutchison says to her readers: "Go forth into the courthouses and list all your ancestral vital statistics - now." (Those "tomorrow's" may never happen.)

Contributed by Edna Gorsage Renner, 1218 Edwards St., Beardstown, Ill. In our December 1976 Issue #4, Vol. IV of The Jacksonville (Il) Geneal Journal, pp. 25-30, we published her Abstracts of the cited Record Book. We thought that publishing Book A would be a way of sharing these older records with our members. The names included that of the deceased for whom the estate was administered, the administrators, perhaps some bondsmen, guardians and minors, and some surviving heirs.

We would like to again pick up on these records and continue them in our September 1977 issue of our Journal. We will start by giving the Surname Index for Record Book A, 1827-1848 and then continue with Record Book B.

Please note error in our Journal, above cited December 1976 issue: Page 30: Those records given as Book B of the Cass County Probate Record book should read "BOOK C".

End of Abstracts for Record Book B.

NOTE: We finished three quarters of a page on Cass County Probate Record Book C [listed as Book B] in our Journal cited preceding page.

We will continue listing these Abstracts by Renner on next page of current Journal; however, the index next listed will include that page in our December 1976 Journal.

both Journals in case a person wants to xerox out the complete Abstracts for reference.

BYLAWS OF THE JACKSONVILLE AREA GENEALOGICAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Revised August, 1977¹

ARTICLE I: Name.

The name of this organization shall be the Jacksonville Area Genealogical and Historical Society, hereinafter called the Society.

ARTICLE II: Purposes.

Section 1. The purposes of the Society shall be to preserve and perpetuate ancestral records of members and to assist each other in genealogical research for educational, patriotic and historical purposes; to discover, collect and preserve any materials which may help to establish or illustrate the history of west central Illinois counties; to encourage the preservation and safeguarding of municipal, township, county and state public records of educational, patriotic and historical significance, and to promote publication of related materials for public use.

Section 2. To receive and hold gifts and devises of real and personal estate from any source for the benefit of the Society and to dispose of any real estate not needed, and to use solely for the purpose of the Society any funds derived therefrom or from gifts generally and to do all things incident to the perpetuation of the Society. All of the foregoing are for carrying on the work of the Society for educational, patriotic and historical purposes as provided in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 3. No part of the net earnings of the Society shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Society shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in section 2 hereof.

Section 4. No substantial part of the activities of the Society shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Society shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Society shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a Society exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a Society, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Section 5. Upon the dissolution of the Society, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Society, dispose of all of the assets of the Society exclusively for the purposes of the Society in such manner, or to such organization or organizations of educational, patriotic and historical significance as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the Seventh Judicial District of the county in which the principal office of the Society is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes. This does not include any articles on temporary or indefinite loan to the Jacksonville Area Genealogical and Historical Society as so designated by the owner.

¹These two Articles, as composed, meets the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service for Federal Income Tax Exemption. These were approved by their Representative, District Office, St. Louis, Missouri.
