

Cartoon Booklet: About YOUR Rights!

A RIGHT is the way you deserve to be treated.

You have the right to have access to your files and to know what is being written about you.

You have the right to help decide what happens in your treatment.

You have the right to ask as many questions as you want.

You have the right to know the names of the workers in the office.

You have the right to be served with kindness and a comforting smile.

You have the right to ask questions and make complaints without punishment.

You have the right to have all your personal information private and not shared with the outside world.

You have the right to be treated respectfully and fairly at all times.

You have the right to have your treatment explained to you in words that you understand.

You have the right to receive services no matter what you look like, what you believe in, who you like, where you come from, or how old you are. You have the right to receive services simply for being you.
