

Vampire Apocalypse

Once in a faraway town, there lived a vampire queen named Valona. One night after she sucked the blood from someone in town Valona was mysteriously zapped by lightning and was turned into a human. She was laying on the ground until two people walked by. A man and a woman. A couple: Lilly and John. "We have to take her to my house," Lilly said.

In the morning the sun was up. When Valona woke up, she was confused. Then, Lily walked in. "I am so glad you're okay," Lily said. But without saying a word, Valona pushed Lily out of the way and rushed out of the room. "Stop!" Lily yelled out to Valona. Lily tried to reach Valona, but Valona was too fast. Lily was terrified because when she found Valona on the ground, she knew in heart she had to protect Valona, and now she wasn't going to be able to protect Valona.

That night there was a full moon. Suddenly the magic lightning zapped Valona again. Valona instantly transformed back into a vampire. Valona was happy to have her Vampire form back. She looked at her hands and her clothes and felt relieved. Off in the distance she saw Lily and John walking toward her. Valona quickly transformed into a bat and started chasing Lily and John. She caught up to Lily and bit her on the neck. Valona began to evilly laugh at her victory, but Valona did not know that Lily still had some human in her.

Lily began to run toward John to try to protect him from Valona. Lily ran so quickly that the cloak she wore flew behind her. Valona was angry. Before Lily could reach John, she and Valona turned into humans. John ran toward Lily, and they hugged each other. Valona ran off in the other direction to get a new idea.

When Valona was alone, she came up with a plan to disguise herself as a potion seller. Valona found Lily telling her there was a potion seller that could change her to being completely human again. So, Lily left her home at night to meet the potion seller. But Lily didn't know what the potion seller was actually Valona.

Isabella Bowler, Age 9

Pretending to be the potion seller, Valona told Lily, "This potion will make you completely human again." Lily drank the potion but fell under Valona's evil spell. Now, Lily was forced to work for Valona, and she became a complete vampire. The potion was only temporary.

Valona had complete control over Lily. Valona told Lily to attack someone and suck their blood. Lily, under the evil spell, said "Yes, Valona." Lily chose her victim, and as she was sucking their blood, John saw Lily. John was very upset to see Lily under Valona's spell. Valona flew toward Lily as a bat. "I am very proud of you, Lily," said Valona. Lily was very glad that Valona was proud of her.

Then when the sun was up, Valona and Lily both transformed back into humans. John was pleased to see Lily was human. The power of the sun caused Valona and Lily to faint to the ground. They were laying on the ground when John picked Lily up and took her to her home. He laid her in bed. When Lily woke up her head was hurting. Lily tiptoed past John as he was sleeping on the couch trying not to wake him up. Lily left the house to go find Valona.

When she saw Valona still on the ground, Lily ran toward her. Lily picked Valona up and walked Valona to her home. Lily looked through the window and John was not there anymore. He left to go find Lily. Then, Lily brought Valona into her room and laid her in the bed. Lily waited on the bed for Valona to wake up. As soon as Valona woke up, she and Lily ran out of the house. Valona knew that the moon would change her back to her original form. Once the moon was in the middle of the sky, Valona and Lily became vampires again. They looked at themselves and then looked at each other.

That's when something unexpected happened. Lily began to float in the air and her skin started to glow. The spell had worn off. John, who had been looking for Lily, saw Valona and Lily. He ran to them. John told Lily, "Run, Lily!" Valona transformed into a bat and began to chase them once again. They ran as fast as they could, and Lily's cloak fell off. John stretched out his arms and sacrificed himself to protect Lily from Valona. Valona caught up to John biting him on the neck and John transformed into a vampire but full vampire. Then Lily ran off to save herself while Valona was doing her evil laugh once again. With Valona and John's teamwork they both attacked many people, and those new vampires attacked other people. This created The Vampire Apocalypse.

Isabella Bowler, Age 9

However, one of the vampires still had a little bit of human inside her name was Sindy. Sindy decided to leave the vampires who were in the village. She headed to the woods where she found Lily. When Lily saw Sindy, she was scared and tried to run but Sindy stopped her. "Don't be scared, I'm good," Sindy said. Then they came up with a plan, shook hands and left for the village. But their plan didn't turn out like they hoped for.

They found Valona had just sent another vampire to turn more villagers into vampires. Sindy looked up and saw Lily had started floating. Something magical happened. Lily's skin glowed. Then her plain red dress transformed into a glittery red and black gown. A shining crown appeared on her head. Lily had transformed into the new vampire queen.

Lily felt a power like she had never felt before. Lily flew to Valona pushing her to the ground. "This is my REVENGE!" Lily used all her magic and defeated Valona. Lily fainted weakly on the floor after defeating Valona. Sindy ran to Lily while Lily was waking up and they hugged. When John was freed, he looked for Lily. He ran to her, and they held each other, finally in their human form. The curse was broken. THE END.