The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, which takes place on the final Sunday of the liturgical year.

The feast was established in 1925 by Pope Pius XI to counter the growing secularism and atheism of the time.

The feast is a reminder that Christ's reign is eternal, even as governments come and go. The feast proclaims Christ's royalty over individuals, families, society, governments, and nations. It also highlights that Jesus is both fully God and fully man, and that he is the image of the invisible God.

On October 3, 1789, President George Washington received a message from Congress requesting him "to recommend to the people of the United States a day of public thanksgiving and prayer."

His proclamation declared that the day "be devoted by the People of these States to the service of that great and glorious Being, who is the beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be."

Thanksgiving has roots in recognizing the many blessings God has given us, as individuals and collectively as a country. More than 230 years later, millions of Americans continue to celebrate Thanksgiving with an eye toward God as the original source of all for which we have to be grateful.

Dear Lord, on Thanksgiving Day, we bow our hearts to You in prayer. We give You thanks for all You have done, mostly for the gift of Jesus Christ, Your Son. For beauty in nature, in which we see Your Glory, for joy and health, friends, and family. For our daily sustenance, Your mercy and care, these are the blessings You kindly share. So today we offer this response of praise with a promise to follow You all of our days. Amen.
