Down Under- Australia's Flora and Fauna
October 14th- October 28th, 2020

Please note our departure from Seattle will be October 12th as with the travel time and crossing the international date line, we lose 2 days.

Day 1- Wednesday, October 14th

LD

Welcome to Sydney! After immigration formalities, we'll be met by our driver and tour manager for a city and beaches tour taking in the major sights including the Eastern Suburbs and the historic Rocks area. After lunch and a stroll on beautiful Bondi Beach, we'll check into our hotel and enjoy some free time to relax or explore Sydney before regrouping for dinner.

Overnight Sydney

Day 2- Thursday, October 15th

BL

After breakfast, we'll travel west to the Blue Mountains known for its dramatic scenery and natural beauty. Our first stop is Bebeah at Mt. Wilson. This garden is a rare example of a formal country estate and one of the first in Australia- dating back to 1880. We then visit the charming town of Leura and the Everglades Historic House and Gardens, a National Trust garden designed in the 1930's complete with European design, winding pathways and stunning Art Deco home. Lunch will be in the area with local garden club members joining us- a great time to share our love of gardening! After lunch, we continue to Katoomba for a Scenic World Experience in the heart of the Blue Mountains National Park and enjoy panoramic, breathtaking views of the region.

Overnight Sydney

Day 3 -Friday, October 16th

BL

This morning there will be a specialist guided visit to the Sydney Botanic Garden. We'll stroll through the gardens and learn about Australia's indigenous heritage, the European settlement and native flora. After a guided tour of the iconic Sydney Opera House, we'll enjoy a scenic lunch cruise on spectacular Sydney Harbour. There will be free time this afternoon and evening to further explore the city.

Overnight Sydney

Day 4- Saturday, October 17th

BLD

Today we leave Sydney and travel southwest to the Southern Highlands- an area home to some of Australia's best-known gardens. Our first visit is to Red Cow Farm at Sutton Forest. This garden has 20 unique garden rooms including a bog garden, monastery garden and kitchen garden. Travel on to Bendooley Estate where they'll be time to wander the gardens, browse the Book Barn, enjoy lunch and taste the wines. Our next visit is the Chinoiserie Garden at Mittagong with its extensive peony collection anticipated to be in full bloom on our arrival! Our final garden visit today is Milton Park Garden at Bowral-a garden of historic significance which includes about 10,000 trees, rare plant varieties and an avenue of giant elms.

Overnight Southern Highlands

Day 5- Sunday, October 18th

BLD

We travel on to Canberra today, but first stop is a private garden with some spectacular views. The garden owner is also a carer of Australian native wildlife, so there will be an opportunity to meet some very special animals. Next stop is at the beautiful historic village of Berrima- known as the best example of a Georgian village on the mainland. There'll be time to wander and shop before lunch at the Poachers Pantry in Gunning. After lunch, we continue west to a local sheep farm for an entertaining sheepdog demonstration. On arrival into Canberra, there'll be an orientation tour of the city with some free time before our dinner at the hotel.

Overnight Canberra

Day 6- Monday, October 19th

BL

Today we explore Canberra and tour the Australian National Botanic Gardens- the largest living collection of native Australian flora. We'll visit a private garden and the National Arboretum- one of the world's largest living collections of rare, endangered and significant trees. Later, we'll join an Aboriginal cultural tour focusing on bush tucker (native foods used by the Aboriginal inhabitants).

Overnight Canberra

Day 7- Tuesday, October 20th

BD

This morning we transfer to the airport for a morning flight to Launceston, Tasmania. Upon our arrival, we'll spend the remainder of the day in the nearby Longford region. We'll tour the Woolmers Estate- a UNESCO World Heritage Site as well as Brickendon Homestead and Gardens with its delightful borders and 180-year-old trees. We'll have the opportunity to dine with some members of the Longford Garden Club this evening to share gardening woes and triumphs!

Overnight Launceston

Day 8- Wednesday, October 21st

BL

We spend today further exploring the Longford and Mole Creek regions. Panshangar Estate is an historic house and English style garden that has been owned by the same family for 100 years. A National Trust property, the grounds have riverside woodlands of silver birch, elm, pine and oak. Our next garden visit is Old Wesley Dale at Mole Creek. A series of "Arts and Crafts" garden rooms with distinct personalities still provide a connection back to the surrounding historic buildings. This afternoon, we'll have a guided tour of the Trowunna Wildlife Sanctuary and see some unique animals including the Tasmanian Devils, quolls, wombats, kangaroos and possums.

Overnight Launceston

Day 9- Thursday, October 22nd

BLD

Today we journey south along the picturesque east coast to Hobart. We'll visit Coles Bay, the breathtaking Freycinet National Park and Wineglass Bay with ample photo opportunities along the way. Did someone mention wine? We'll stop at the Bangor Wine and Oyster Shed to enjoy a glass or two of wine and some freshly shucked oysters (optional, of course). Upon arrival in Hobart, a brief city tour before checking into our hotel.

Overnight Hobart

Day 10- Friday, October 23rd

BL

This morning we travel just south of Hobart to Inverawe Native Gardens at Margate. Inverawe is a pioneering garden setting the scene for Australia's gardens of the future- ones suited to its hot, dry climate and focusing on protecting Australia's fragile landscape. We will then have lunch and a tasting at a local winery before returning to Hobart for a tour of the Royal Tasmanian Botanical Gardens. Included will be a visit to the Sub Antarctic Plant House- there is no other plant collection like this in the world!

Overnight Hobart

Day 11- Saturday, October 24th

B

Today is a full free day to relax or explore Hobart on your own. There are lots of optional day trips available including a wilderness cruise exploring the rock formations and stunning beauty of the Tasmanian coast line.

Overnight Hobart

Day 12- Sunday, October 25th

BLD

This morning we depart Tasmania for Melbourne. Upon arrival, there will be a highlights city tour including lunch followed by a guided tour of the Royal Botanic Gardens and its 31 different plant collections ranging from large tree to colorful perennials.

Overnight Melbourne

Day 13- Monday, October 26th

BL

Today we explore the area of Mornington Peninsula. We'll visit Cruden Farm at Langwarren- a truly beautiful garden developed over 45 years with its lemon scented gum drive, picking garden and ornamental lake. We then travel on to Heronswood at Dromana- an historic property and formal garden. It's also home to the Diggers Club that includes a nursery, restaurant and garden shop. We'll have lunch in the restaurant there before visiting the Australian Garden at Cranbourne. This garden is noted for displays of Australian flora, landscapes, art and architecture.

Overnight Melbourne

Day 14- Tuesday, October 27th

BLD

We spend the day in the nearby Dandenong Ranges. We'll visit Cloudhill Gardens at Olinda consisting of 20 beautiful rooms threaded through glorious old European beech, magnolias, maples and a collection of Himalayan tree rhododendrons. We'll have lunch and a tasting at one of the well-known wineries of the region followed by a very special garden visit. William Ricketts Sanctuary Garden was created as a space for quiet reflection and replenishing the spirit. There are over 90 different sculptures carved into the rocks and tree trunks depicting aboriginal people engaging with the earth in a pure forest setting.

Overnight Melbourne

Day 15- Wednesday, October 28th
