

Ma Petite Garden Tours presents

Santa Fe's Art and Gardens

Behind the Adobe Walls Home & Garden Tour

With the International Folk-Art Market

July 10th- July 15th, 2020

Day 1- Friday, July 10th

D

After our late afternoon Albuquerque arrival, we'll transfer to the Hilton Santa Fe Historic Plaza Hotel located in the heart of the city and in walking distance to its many shops, restaurants and galleries. Santa Fe was founded in 1610 and is the oldest state capital with a rich Hispanic heritage and a charming small-town feel. It's a center for art and culture and at 7000 feet, high desert gardening. After checking in and a little free time, we'll have a short walk to a restaurant and sample authentic Southwest cuisine.

Day 2- Saturday, July 11th

B

This morning we'll have a guided visit to the Santa Fe Botanic Garden featuring Southwest native plants and other drought tolerant varieties. This is an educational garden demonstrating sustainable land and water use practices.

Following our tour of the garden, we have tickets to the International Folk-Art Market (located across the street from the garden). This fun and inspiring market features 160 artists from 50 different countries offering hand-made, finely-crafted, affordable art. You may want to bring an extra suitcase to take back some unique treasures!

Overnight Santa Fe

Day 3- Sunday, July 12th

BL

This morning we enjoy a private historic walking tour of the city and learn about Santa Fe's unique blend of Old West, Spanish and Native American culture.

After lunch in a nearby restaurant, we have a guided visit to the Georgia O'Keefe Museum. Georgia O'Keefe is recognized as the "Mother of American Modernism" and is famous for her enlarged flowers, New York skyscrapers and New Mexico landscapes. We'll have the remainder of the afternoon to explore the many other museums or a trip back to the art market.

Overnight Santa Fe

Day 4- Monday, July 13th

BL

Today we venture northwest for a private informative tour to the Bandelier

National Monument to see these remarkable ancient cave dwellings. This monument is over 33,000 acres with petroglyphs and evidence of human presence from over 11,000 years ago! We'll enjoy a picnic lunch here before we continue to a local native plant nursery for an informative talk about the triumphs and challenges of gardening here and Southwest native plants.

Remainder of the day and evening is free.

Overnight Santa Fe

Day 5- Tuesday, July 14th

BD

Our morning is free to relax, shop, visit some art galleries or take an early morning trip to the Santa Fe Farmer's Market. We meet back at the hotel midday to begin the Behind the Adobe Walls Home and Garden Tour. Sponsored by the Santa Fe Garden Club, this exclusive tour is in its 81st year and features four seldom seen private home and high desert gardens. It highlights extraordinary art collections, a variety of architectural styles as well as the unique gardens.

This evening we have a very special surprise planned for our farewell dinner. Bring your appetite!
