EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

EASTER

THOUGHTS TO CONSIDER

From an Easter homily by Saint Melito of Sardis, bishop

The Easter praise of Christ

We should understand, beloved, that the paschal mystery is at once old and new, transitory and eternal, corruptible and incorruptible, mortal and immortal. In terms of the Law it is old, in terms of the Word it is new. In its figure it is passing, in its grace it is eternal. It is corruptible in the sacrifice of the lamb, incorruptible in the eternal life of the Lord. It is mortal in his burial in the earth, immortal in his resurrection from the dead.

The Law indeed is old, but the Word is new. The type is transitory, but grace is eternal. The lamb was corruptible, but the Lord is incorruptible. He was slain as a lamb; he rose again as God. He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, yet he was not a sheep. He was silent as a lamb, yet he was not a lamb. The type has passed away; the reality has come. The lamb gives place to God, the sheep gives place to a man, and the man is Christ, who fills the whole of creation. The sacrifice of the lamb, the celebration of the Passover, and the prescriptions of the Law have been fulfilled in Jesus Christ. Under the old Law, and still more under the new dispensation, everything pointed toward him.

Both the Law and the Word came forth from Zion and Jerusalem, but now the Law has given place to the Word, the old to the new. The commandment has become grace, the type a reality. The lamb has become a Son, the sheep a man, and man, God.

The Lord, though he was God, became man. He suffered for the sake of those who suffer, he was bound for those in bonds, condemned for the guilty, buried for those who lie in the grave; but he rose from the dead, and cried aloud: Who will contend with me? Let him confront me. I have freed the condemned, brought the dead back to life, raised men from their graves. Who has anything to say against me? I, he said, am the Christ; I have destroyed death, triumphed over the enemy, trampled hell underfoot, bound the strong one, and taken men up to the heights of heaven: I am the Christ.

Come, then, all you nations of men, receive forgiveness for the sins that defile you. I am your forgiveness. I am the Passover that brings salvation. I am the lamb who was immolated for you. I am your ransom, your life, your resurrection, your light, I am your salvation and your king. I will bring you to the heights of heaven. With my own right hand I will raise you up, and I will show you the eternal Father.

PENSAMIENTOS PARA CONSIDERAR

De la homilía de Melitón de Sardes, obispo, sobre la Pascua

ALABANZA DE CRISTO

Fijaos bien, queridos hermanos: el misterio de Pascua es a la vez nuevo y antiguo, eterno y pasajero, corruptible e incorruptible, mortal e inmortal. Antiguo según la ley, pero nuevo según la Palabra encarnada. Pasajero en su figura, pero eterno por la gracia. Corruptible por el sacrificio del cordero, pero incorruptible por la vida del Señor. Mortal por su sepultura en la tierra, pero inmortal por su resurrección de entre los muertos. La ley es antigua, pero la Palabra es nueva. La figura es pasajera, pero la gracia eterna.

Corruptible el cordero pascual pero incorruptible el Señor, el cual, inmolado como cordero, resucitó como Dios. Porque él fue como cordero llevado al matadero, y sin embargo no era un cordero; y como oveja enmudecía, y sin embargo no era una oveja: en efecto, ha pasado la figura y ha llegado la realidad: en lugar de un cordero tenemos a Dios, en lugar de una oveja tenemos un hombre, y en el hombre, Cristo, que lo contiene todo. El sacrificio del cordero, el rito de la Pascua y la letra de la ley tenían por objetivo final a Cristo Jesús, por quien todo acontecía en la ley antigua y, con razón aún mayor, en la nueva economía. La ley se convirtió en la Palabra y de antigua se ha hecho nueva (ambas salieron de Sión y de Jerusalén). El mandamiento se transformó en gracia y la figura en realidad; el cordero vino a ser el Hijo; la oveja, hombre y el hombre, Dios.

El Señor, siendo Dios, se revistió de la naturaleza de hombre: sufrió por el que sufría, fue encarcelado en bien del que estaba cautivo, juzgado en lugar del culpable, sepultado por el que yacía en el sepulcro. Y, resucitando de entre los muertos, exclamó con voz potente: ¿Quién tiene algo contra mí? ¡Que se me acerque! Yo soy quien he librado al condenado, yo quien he vivificado al muerto, yo quien hice salir de la tumba al que ya estaba sepultado. ¿Quién peleará contra mí? Yo soy —dice Cristo— el que venció la muerte, encadenó al enemigo, pisoteó el infierno, maniató al fuerte, llevó al hombre hasta lo más alto de los cielos; yo, en efecto, que soy Cristo.

Venid, pues, vosotros todos, los hombres que os halláis enfangados en el mal, recibid el perdón de vuestros pecados. Porque yo soy vuestro perdón, soy la Pascua de salvación, soy el cordero degollado por vosotros, soy vuestra agua lustral, vuestra vida, vuestra resurrección, vuestra luz, vuestra salvación y vuestro rey. Puedo llevaros hasta la cumbre de los cielos, os resucitaré, os mostraré al Padre celestial, os haré resucitar con el poder ».de mi diestra

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

Alleluia! Christ is risen! About today's feast, St. Augustine writes: "And he departed from our sight that we might return to our hearts and find him there. For he left us, and behold, he is here." Christ's resurrected presence lives not only in the highest heaven but in the fragile human heart. Christ's life inspires us and moves us to see a future for every human being and discover our true purpose and meaning. Every human being has a desire to live, and this cry can be heard within. There is a longing for a connection with Someone greater than ourselves that gives an import to our existence that we cannot supply. Today, our deepest questions find answers.

Encourage youth to become citizens grounded in their faith through creative writing. Open to all qualifying Catholic students.

This contest encourages today's youth to be more connected to their community and their faith. The goal of this program is to involve young Catholics in grades 8 to 12 (public, private, parochial or home schools during the current school year) in civic discourse and instill in them religious and life-affirming values. The essay should be 500-750 words on a specific topic, changing every other year. Entrants were judged on grammar, style, and how clearly they present the theme in a way that showcases creativity, imagination and overall development of the topic.

Recipients are Audriana Valencia age 16, 10th grade Bernalillo High School and Gabriella Manzanares age 14, 8th grade Bernalillo Middle School

Archdiocese of Santa Fe Year of Saint Joseph

Office of Worship

Celebrating the Year of Saint Joseph

This year Pope Francis declared Dec. 8, 2020 to Dec. 8, 2021, the Year of St. Joseph – beloved father, guardian of the holy family, and obedient and humble servant of God – in his letter Patris corde, “With a Father’s Heart.”

The Holy Father made the announcement on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of Mary, urging all the faithful to concentrate on asking St. Joseph to interceded for us as a loving father, as we commit to welcoming the will of God in our lives as Joseph did in his. Pope Francis encourages us to be courageous and share our values, dignity and love of God. Like Joseph we need to be present, compassionate, and “ever ready to carry out God’s will.”

Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted,
we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

Blandina, the servant of God, protector of children, especially immigrant children, caring for their health and education; I come to seek your intercession in my present need:

(State your intention.)

I admire your spirit of sacrifice, recognizing the need and ready to serve. Your healing hand and educating voice moving hearts to forgive, now brings me joy to know your love for Jesus. Teach my heart to trust God as you did and ready my lips to say "Gesù" (Jesus) as to welcome God's spirit into my heart.

O dearest St. Joseph, I consecrate myself to thy honor and give myself to thee, that thou mayest always be my father, my protector, and my guide in the way of salvation. Obtain for me a great purity of heart and a fervent love of the interior life. After thine example, may I do all my actions for the greater glory of God, in union with the Divine Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary! And do thou, O Blessed St.
Joseph, pray for me that I may share in the peace and joy of thy holy death Amen.

Jesus is alive!
