

Regina I. Brown – Bio

Regina has resided in Smyrna since 1987 when she married the late Col. Kenneth P. Brown. She has 2 sons, 3 daughters, and 4 grandchildren. After graduating from St. Elizabeth High School in Wilmington in 1959, she was employed by E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Co. as a benefits analyst and an executive secretary. Upon her voluntary early retirement in 1992, she enrolled at Delaware State University where she graduated with honors in 1997 with a degree in accounting. She was recruited by J. P. Morgan Chase where she worked as a tax assistant, chargeback analyst, and in general ledger reconciliation. She once again retired in 2005.

Regina was Town of Smyrna Vice Mayor from 2012-16 and District 1 Councilwoman from 2010-16 when she chaired the following committees/commissions: Economic Development, Personnel, Design & Construction of Police Building, Charter Review, Ethics, Shade Tree, and Chief of Police Search. She was also a member of the Finance Committee and AFSCME & FOP Unions Negotiating Team as well as being Council Liaison to the Smyrna Public Library. Currently, she is District 1 representative on the Kent County Library Advisory Committee.

Regina is affiliated with the following organizations: Friends of Belmont Hall as co-founder and Vice President, Delaware State Association of Parliamentarians as Treasurer, National Garden Clubs, Inc., Delaware Federation of Garden Clubs as secretary to the Flower Show Judges Council, Central Atlantic Region of State Garden Clubs as former Executive Director, Duck Creek Gardeners as co-founder and former president, and life member of Duck Creek Historical Society.

Regina is a member of The Book Club in Smyrna; and she maintains a keen interest in antiques, especially those related to Delaware. She is looking forward to the day when the Duck Creek Regional Library is a reality in Downtown Smyrna.
