

Mary C. Lomax

Mary C. Lomax is a native of Chester, Pennsylvania. The daughter of the late Lawrence and Pauline Clark. She has a sister Yvonne B Clark, a brother Mervin D. Clark and daughter Yvonne A. Lomax

Mary C. Lomax is a graduate of the following universities: Delaware State College (University) Bachelor of Science Degree in Health & Physical Education; West Chester State College (University) Masters Degrees Health & Physical Education and Health Education; Wilmington University a Certificate in Elementary Counseling; and Friends International University, Saratoga, FL, Doctor of Philosophy in Christian Counseling.

Mary is affiliated with the following organizations: Delaware State Association of Parliamentarians (Past President); Delaware Board of Medical Licensure and Discipline; Calvary Baptist Church, Dover, DE (Trustee and Youth Ministries); National Baptist Deacons' Convention of America, Inc. and Its Auxiliaries (National Youth Advisor and 1st Vice President of Women's Auxiliary); Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Alpha Alpha Mu Omega, President and Charter Member; Delaware State University Alumni Association; and Kent County Chapter of Delaware State University Alumni Association.

She retired from Delaware State University after teaching 31 years as an Assistant Professor in Health & Human Performance Department.